WE NOMINATE

Six dedicated, able and willing Princetonians who in the week ahead — on Election Tuesday between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. — will pass in review before their fellow townsmen as the Borough and Township of Princeton in the most urbanized state in the Union once again have the opportunity to weigh the qualifications of candidates for municipal office. This sextet, constituting an interesting cross-section of the community and each of whom is qualified for the office he seeks, suggests by its presence on the General Ballot that the "volunteer spirit" can be a vibrant force in the political life of what seems to be a growingly apathetic nation.

While over the past fortnight it has become more and more evident that the country — conceivably because of "off-year inertia" or through a sense of frustration in world affairs and undefined concerns over "national priorities" — is winging to the right, Princeton's attention has been largely riveted on local problems originating in growth, or urbanization, and a changing population. Platitudes have been trailing down like autumn leaves — at meetings, on hand-wringing salaries and in contrived press pictures — but, on balance, it has been a period productive of hard-headed approaches to such matters as the local physical environment, drugs, the worries confronting youth, housing, traffic and recreation.

In a fall when little emotion has been generated by two proposed State Constitutional Amendments (Senior Citizens' Tax Deduction Increase and Reduction of Voting Age to 19 years), two newcomers to the political arena, Republican Charles L. Meyer and Democrat Junius Jay Bleiman, have been carving out well-conceived campaigns for the lone vacancy on Princeton Township Committee. The former, a 10-year old product of the Universities of Tennessee and Pittsburgh, is Vice President and a member of the Board of directors of Ethicon, Inc., while the 48-year old Bleiman, a brilliant, retired U.S. Army lieutenant colonel, is currently directing the Mid-Career Program in the University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs.

The two openings on Borough Council, the only major elective posts in this area offering nary a penny of compensation, have attracted four equally sound candidates, with both the Democrats and Republicans offering what used to be termed in yesteryear "Town-Gown Combinations." The Democrats are offering two lifelong Princetonians, 28-year old Joseph P. Moore, the second black educator to attain the rank of Dean at Princeton University, and a demonstrated vote-getter, Martin P. Lombardo, 29, loser by a single vote in the Borough elections a year ago. J. Van Skillman, 11, well-known Princeton businessman, and Charles L. Taggart, 12, in his 12th year as a senior administrative officer of the University, are the Republican standard-bearers.

On Tuesday's ballot Skillman, owner of Morris Maple & Son, a former President of Princeton Engine Company No. 1, an alumnus of Miami University and active in sports programs, will be "paired with" Moore, Assistant Dean of Students at the University, President of the Princeton Youth Center's Board of Directors and holding degrees from Central State University (Ohio) and Newark State College. Taggart, Oklahoma-born and a University graduate, now serving as Assistant Dean of the Graduate School following three years as Secretary of Princeton's Alumni Council, is bracketed with the energetic Lombardo, the National Multiple

VOTE ON TUESDAY

Election. Ahead. Princeton voters won't be choosing a mayor next Tuesday but you'd never know it to visit Princeton Township.

In the Township this week, a man who isn't even running for office has declared that he will not serve as mayor if his party wins. And a man who is running for office, is urging voters to vote for him so that somebody else can be mayor.

Committeeman Thomas Hartmann has announced that if Democrat Jay Bleiman is elected to Committee, thereby giving the Democrats a 3-2 majority and the right to choose who's going to be mayor, he will not be the man.

"I wish at this time to remove myself from consideration for valid professional reasons," Mr. Hartmann declared.

He cited his need to travel a great deal. "I am often not accessible," Mr. Hartmann continued. "My attendance at Township meetings has been as a Committee of one other Committeeman, but the mayor must be accessible at other times.

MAYOR? HE SAYS NO. Thomas Hartmann, Township Committeeman, said this week he doesn't want to be considered for the Township mayor's job if a Democratic victory brings a Democratic Committee majority.

Where To Vote Election Day

Here are the polling places where you cast your ballot next Tuesday, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Princeton Township there is one new district, District 11.

BOROUGH

- District 1: Borough Hall
- District 2: "Nassau Street School"
- District 3: North Harrison St. Firehouse
- District 4: Chestnut St. Firehouse
- District 5: Methodist Church
- District 6: Youth Center Building, 4 Green
- District 7: Chambers St. Firehouse
- District 8: Borough Hall
- District 9: North Harrison St. Firehouse

TOWNSHIP

- District 1: Community Park School
- District 2: Johnson Park School
- District 3: Riverside School
- District 4: Sportsmen's Club, Terhune Rd.
- District 5: Littlebrook School
- District 6: Sportsmen's Club
- District 7: Sportsmen's Club
- District 8: Johnson Park School
- District 9: Riverside School
- District 10: Littlebrook School
- District 11: Johnson Park School

Both (Committeeman) James Floyd and Jay Bleiman are close at hand and available.

Mr. Floyd had this to say of Mr. Hartmann's withdrawal: "I still feel Tom should be considered along with the other four candidates for the mayor's job. He is well qualified."

So, if Mr. Bleiman is elected Tuesday, who will be mayor?

"Keep Wallace," Charles Meyer, running against Mr. Bleiman on the Republican ticket, points out as he rings doorbells, that a vote for him is the way to keep John D. Wallace as mayor.

If Mr. Meyer wins, presumably the Republican majority will choose Mr. Wallace again as chairman of Committee, the Township's equivalent of mayor. The office is not elected separately, as in the Borough.

Because the mayor is not a separately-elected official, Mr. Bleiman has been saying in his campaign that Committee is a Committee of equals, with each of the five members "potentially as influential and powerful as the mayor."

Committeeman William L. Wilson, who goes out of office at the end of this year, this week took strong exception to Mr. Bleiman's interpretation:

"He has clearly demonstrated that he has a less than acceptable grasp of both the legalities and realities of Princeton Township's municipal government," declared Mr. Wilson.

He stated that the mayor, by law, is "solely responsible for many public appointments which do not require the consent of the governing body. These include appointment of five members to the . . . Real Estate Planning Board and others to the library commission, Shade Tree Commission and Site Plan Review Board, among many others."

Transcending Importance. Mr. Wilson, who served as mayor for one year, refers to other appointments, which must be approved by Committee, "thus giving (the mayor) an importance and responsibility alone that is equal to those of the other four members combined, since the appointments cannot be made without his consent."

Referring to Mr. Floyd and Mr. Hartmann, either of whom could become mayor under a Democratic majority if tradition is observed, Mr. Wilson stated:

"The incumbent Democratic Committeemen have any great respect and friendship. However, I also feel neither one is in a position to function with all effectiveness as mayor. Other significant matters aside, from my past observation of the amount of time they are able to give to municipal affairs—as great as it has undoubtedly been—I do not see how either will find it possible to devote to Township duties the additional 10-20 hours a week that the position of mayor normally requires. . . . Jack Wallace, no doubt, with the fortunate relationship he has with his employer and his working position in Princeton, has met and solved this problem."

Mayor Wallace is a vice-president of the New Jersey National Bank in Trenton.

"His Reasons Are Partisan." Asked to comment on Mr. Wilson's statement, Mr. Bleiman said, "I will not debate with Mr. Wilson the issue of the role of the mayor. His participation of the mayor. His participation of the mayor. His participation of the mayor."

PRINCETONIANS OF THE WEEK

 can reasons for writing such a statement are only too apparent. I will only call attention to a paragraph in my campaign brochure:

"I, Jay Bleiman, will draw more widely on all our residents (regardless of party affiliation) for appointments to boards and commissions, particularly our skilled and qualified women. We are now more than ever in need of the independent power of our local boards and commissions."

Mr. Hartmann, in his withdrawal statement, says, "Each Committeeman is qualified to be mayor. The mayor has no authority other than that given by the Committee as a whole. I believe in participation as practiced in Princeton Township. The Republican majority has told Jim Floyd and me, as minority members, who will be mayor. We have gone along with the dictates of the majority because power is a reality in political situations, and because we want the mayor to speak for a united Committee on vital issues."

At a Rotary Club luncheon on Tuesday, both Mr. Meyer and Mr. Bleiman — but no Borough candidates — spoke briefly and answered questions. The issue of who gets to be mayor was not raised.

Mr. Meyer told the Rotarians he had found Township residents most concerned about drugs, and next about housing, consolidation and taxes.

Housing for All. He expressed his vigorous support for Princeton Community Housing's middle income proposals, and in reply to a question about zoning for luxury high-rise, said the Township "must give some thought to the housing problems of upper income retired people who have moved out of $10,000 homes and have no place to go. They have problems, too," he stated.

Mr. Bleiman, reviving the same question, said, "I don't like the idea of specific zoning for apartments we couldn't control."

Both candidates would like to see more rateables in the Township. Mr. Bleiman underscored "sustainable" rateables; Mr. Meyer suggested seeking out rateables that could employ technical people already living here.

In the Borough. Meanwhile, they aren't electing a mayor in the Borough either. None of the four contestants for Borough Council is an incumbent, but one has run the race before. He is Martin P. Lombardi, who lost a Council seat last year by one vote. His running mate on the Democratic ticket is Joseph Moore.

Their opponent on the Republican side are Charles Taggart and J. V. Skillman, known as "Van," "Skillie" or "June" (for "Junior").

At last week's League of Women Voters' candidates meeting Mr. Skillman expressed his concern about parking and announced that he would like to see jitney service for people who work in Princeton and stop here.

His opponent, Mr. Moore, wasn't sure jineys would do any good. This was an interesting historical switch. In past Borough campaigns, it has often been the Democrats who pushed for jitneys and the Republicans who weren't so sure.

When Mr. Meyer said of parking, "There are other priorities in the Township," he drew protests from Democrats Lombardi and Bleiman, and these moved him to say quickly that parking "is a mutual concern, to be solved together."

In the County. Outside Princeton, in Mercer County where so many tax dollars go, there are Precholders to be chosen — three of them this year. Republicans hope to win with incumbent Regina Meredith and newcomers Dominick Iorio and Paul McBride, and with a majority on the Board of Chosen Precholders, to overturn 20 years of Democratic rule in Mercer.

The Democrats hope to hang on to that control by winning with John S. Watson, Paul J. Solhami and Gilbert W. Ludwig.

Voters in Princeton will join with other voters in this Fourth Congressional District to choose a Congressman for the House of Representatives. Frank Thompson Jr., the Democrat incumbent, hopes to hold his seat against Edward A. Costigan, Republican challenger.

The race for United States Senate pits incumbent Harrison A. Williams Jr., Democrat, against Republican Neilson Gross.

Two public questions will confront voters in the booths on Tuesday.

The first would reduce the voting age to 19, the second would increase the tax deduction on real estate for senior citizens from $80 to $100. Towns would be reimbursed one-half. TOWN TOPICS recommends a "Yes" vote for both.

HOLD-THÉ-LINE-BUDGET

For Schools. Warning once again of the half-million dollar drop in income that will hit Princeton's schools when 400 West Windsor-Plainsboro students pull out of Princeton High in 1972, school board finance chairman Winthrop Pike announced Tuesday night that the new budget will be geared to "hold-the-line."

"We don't know how much of that $300,000 tuition loss can be offset by staff reductions," Mr. Pike told the audience. "We can't make much of a staff reduction and continue to offer varied programs for different kinds of kids at the high school."

A slight reduction in staff related to a slightly reduced enrollment this year, will be reflected in the Current Expense portion of the budget. But salary increases will show up there, too.

In Capital Expense, the board may decide to enclose the open gym at Johnson Park, but that will be all.

Last year, Mr. Pike pointed out, the board used $66,000 of its existing surplus to offset tax increases. That won't be done this time. Instead, surpluses will probably be retained, to cushion the actual West Windsor-Plainsboro pull-in.

Two years. Surpluses come, Mr. Pike said, from the efforts of staff and from tuition adjustments with sending districts.

Superintendent Philip E. McPherson said a hold-the-line budget was not necessarily "negative" in terms of education. Although no "new money" will be in the budget, he said, new projects might replace discarded ones. Tight money, in short, could serve as a means for evaluation, with less satisfactory projects tossed out.

The staff within a school needs to make these decisions, he stated.

No Ski Trip. A 52 vote showed

"DECK THE HALLS" has been renamed The Christmas Booth for the seventh annual Christmas Boutique to be held on Tuesday through Thursday at the Nassau Inn. It will cater to those interested in Christmas decor that truly represents the season. Story on page 44.

ed under the high school ski trip for this year. Mrs. Kathleen Edwards made a motion to delay the trip for one year and reconsider it for '71-'72. "I'm voting against this motion because I don't want to discuss this all over again next year," explained Mrs. Geddes. Dr. Henry Powsner joined her.

The PHS Student Council has already voted not to endorse the annual trip on the grounds that it discriminates against students who can't afford the $70 fee, plus purchase or rental of equipment.

Principal Florence Burke told the board 700 students had petitioned for a re-arranged calendar so they could have a three-day trip. But the board isn't about to re-do the calendar this late in the year; there was no argument on that.

Dr. Powsner suggested formation of a Ski Club, which could serve as sponsor of a trip in place of the school system itself. But would it be an inside-the-school club, or an outside-the-school club, and if it's a school club, what's the difference between a trip sponsored by the club and a trip sponsored by the club, and a trip officially sponsored by the board? The discussion became so murky that finally Miss Burke asked, "Am I correct in assuming we could proceed with a trip if we had a Ski Club?" Dr. Robert Bierman, president in the absence of both the president and vice president of the board, said "Yes." But then Dr. McPherson said he didn't see any difference.

Behind-the-Wheel. Driver education sparked almost as many words. Many parents believe strongly in behind-the-wheel driver education should be part of the high school program. Insurance companies reduce premiums by 10% and more if a young driver has been in such a program, reported Associate Superintendent Eugene Bisinger. Driver ed. was sliced from the last budget.

"I can't recommend it because I'm not recommending any 'new money' in the budget," declared Dr. McPherson. "If we had unlimited resources, OK, but not with a hold-the-line budget."

In both the ski trip and driver ed. discussions, Dr. McPherson asked questions about the ways decisions are made at the high school. Miss Burke reported that student representatives had been elected that day—Tuesday—to the new Advisory Council and that, with faculty representatives, would hold an organization meeting this Friday. She will suggest driver ed. as a topic for discussion, she stated.

"Let's not rush Miss Burke," urged Dr. William Abrams, "let's give her a chance to work out this new Advisory Council." He proposed, and the board adopted with what Mr. Pike called "delightful unanimity," a directive to Dr. McPherson to come up with a recommendation on drivers.

TOWER COMING UP

Hearing Wednesday. The Tower, which was, now a humble trio of three-story structures instead of a splendid 11-story outpost, will be up for hearing next Wednesday, November 4, at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall before the Princeton Regional Planning Board. The new proposal has been approved by the Township's site plan review board, which recommends Planning Board approval, citing the complex "complete conformance" to the Township Zoning ordinance.

The three buildings are arranged around a square, with the fourth side left open. The building, comprising the same square footage as the original Tower, and cover somewhat more ground on the Mt. Lucas Road site.

FOUR ARE INJURED

In Elm Road Crash Monday. Four elderly persons were injured early Monday evening when the 1971 car in which they were riding was struck at the intersection of Elm Road and Stockton Street.

Dorothy E. S. Farr, 80, 515 Mercer Road, was admitted to Princeton Hospital with a fractured shoulder bone, possible chest injuries and lacerations. James F. Farr, 68, of 545 Mercer, was treated for a laceration of the chin and released. They were passengers in a car operated by Mary G. Hill, 71, 144 Prospect Avenue. She was treated for chest contusions. Philip K. Hill, 81, same address, received lacerations.

Mrs. Hill told Ptl. Thomas Michael that she had stopped at the foot of Elm and, seeing no cars, pulled out into the intersection to turn left. Suddenly, she said, she saw a car coming at a high rate of speed and the two collided. She was tickled for failing to obey a stop sign.

Louis J. Walters Jr., 412, of Trenton, the other driver, told police that he tried to brake when the Hill car pulled out in front of him but he slid into the left side of it. The entire front end of his car was damaged.

Blinded by Lights. Three persons were slightly injured late Sunday evening when a driver of a car, blinded by lights, struck the rear of a car parked off the shoulder of Mercer Road, 600 feet north of Parkside Drive.

The driver, Bernard Glover, 20, 212 Robert Road, told Township police that he was heading south on Mercer about 40 miles an hour when he was Temperatures in the outlying area, following the freezing mark early Wednesday morning. It won't be long before the frost is really on the pumpkin.

Meantime, a milder trend is in sight, with the possibility that the thermometer will move well up into the 60s by the weekend. It should be generally fair (or what the Weather Man calls "partly sunny") through Sunday.

Suddenly blinded by the lights of an approaching car. He turned to the right slightly but his car apparently went off the shoulder of the road. When he applied his brakes, he skidded into the rear of a parked car.

The impact forced the parked car into a skid and it over- turned on its roof, coming to rest partially in the south lane of Mercer.

Inside the car at the time of the mishap—11:05 p.m.—were Douglas K. Dempsey, 19, and Mary Cattani, 18, both of 32 Stonicker Drive, Lawrence Township. Mr. Dempsey sustained lacerations of the arm; Miss Cattani a strain of the lower back.

Mr. Glover's wife, Helen, 49, received abrasions and lacerations of the left forehead. She was treated and released from Princeton Hospital.

The second parked car, one of several parked off the shoulder on the other side of Mercer at the accident site, was empty.

Car Skids on Wet Road. Sunday afternoon at 3:22, two sons of the head of the household, brothers were slightly injured when their car skidded on the rain slicked Stony Brook bridge on Mercer Road.

Taken to Princeton Hospital by the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad were Peter J. Krawiec, 20, of 2450 Princeton Pike, and his younger brother, John 13. Both were released after being treated for contusions of the head.

Mr. Krawiec told Twp. Ptl. Robert Nielsen that he veered to the right as he approached the bridge to avoid a car on the narrow bridge. His car skidded on the slippery surface.

The bon mot...

Boy, have I found out something about myself. I'm a compulsive reader. Not great books, or anything useful like that. Bullwads! For instance, young into him New Jersey Turnpike there is a billboard that reads: "What, you haven't even seen 'Man of La Mancha' once?" Well, must frankly I have seen it once. It's great! But I've read that damned sign fifty times.

Happily over the years, I've turned up some interesting slogans — generally from the truck in front of me. A dayman proclaims "You can whip my cream, but you can't beat our Milk."

A local food company announces "Our service makes warm friends."

My favorite though, has to be this hand-lettered admonition on the rear of a garbage truck: "Satisfaction guaranteed, or double your trash back."

To this treasury of the fringe, we add our own "Flowers with a Flair." I believe its impact is wearing off, however, as I haven't been asked to explain it for months now.

It will leave at 6:30 from the parking lot on Witherspoon Street next to the Public Library, march up to Nassau and down Nassau to Moore where it will turn left and end at the high school. Judging in the parade will be clowns from the Trenton Clown Club.

Entertainment inside the school auditorium will begin around 7:15 and include bags of goodies for the children, prizes and trophies. Prizes for the prettiest, funniest and most original costume will be awarded children in four age groups: 4 and under, 5 to 7, 8 to 10 and 11 and over.

There will also be awards in the pumpkin cutting contest for the most original, funniest and most terrifying pumpkin. Boo! Judging will be done on a grade-level basis.

Pedestrian Struck. Margaret DeGara, 62, 145 Harrison Street, was admitted to Princeton Hospital early Friday morning after she was hit in the middle of a crosswalk by a car at the intersection of Franklin Avenue and Harrison Street.

She suffered a broken right leg, a fractured right shoulder and elbow and abrasions.

Fred L. Tompkins, 19, of Edison, the driver, told police that he had just left a boy and was looking down the street for traffic. "I let my foot off the clutch. When I saw a lady, I hit my brakes. I was at a stop when she went down."

He was charged by Ptl. Victor Passanella with failure to yield to a pedestrian at a crosswalk and driving an unsafe vehicle. Police reported that the right windshield wiper of his small foreign car was missing and that his windshield at the time had enough rain on it to cause poor vision to the right front side of the car.

Mr. Tompkins was attempting to make a right turn onto Harrison at the time of the accident, police said.

Hit While Waiting for Light. Another accident at Elm—this one at Rosedale, which the installation of traffic signals was supposed to eliminate—took place Thursday morning at 11:15.

Ralph K. Hamlin Jr., 18, of Delran, told police that he was waiting for the light, prior to turning left on Rosedale when he was suddenly rammed from behind. Ptl. James Agins issued a summons to Charles E. Riley, 27, of Trenton, for failing to keep right.

A passenger in the Riley car, Herbert Fountain, 35, of Trenton, was taken to Princeton Hospital by a passing motorist. There, 10 sutures were used to close multiple lacerations and abrasions on his forehead. He was released.

Mr. Riley told police he saw the stopped car and tried to go around it. There wasn't enough room, however, and when he attempted to stop, he skidded on the wet roadway.

Ten minutes later, another accident occurred at Witherspoon and Wiggins when Yen Tsin, 25, of 69 Jefferson Road, went through a flashing red light at the foot of Wiggins and rammed a car driven by Speaker For The House . . .

... or the home of one who really knows.
BOSE

Every major critic and reviewer both here and abroad, has given the Bose 901 rave reviews. Some of the most respected names in the high fidelity world, such as Julian Hirsch, have rated the 901 as unequalled by any speaker for overall realism.

The Amazing Quest of Dr. Amar G. Bose . . .

Professor of Electrical Engineering, MIT; here revealed for the world to understand! Dr. Bose loves music. He frequents Symphony Hall in Boston, and was a student of the violin. But Dr. Bose (a hi-fi enthusiast, too) could not equate what he heard in concerts halls with the music reproduction of commercial speakers. So he put all his skill, knowledge and resources (extensive, all) into the designing of a perfect speaker. Spurring you most of the scientific-engineering-type details (see Audio, 12, 68, for the whole story) he succeeded . . . and you can possess the results of these years of research. Mrs. Talin was taken to Princeton Hospital, after complaining of head pains. There were no visible signs of injury, police said. The entire front ends of both cars were extensively damaged.

Pt. Anthony Ranfone issued a summons to Mrs. Talin for disregarding the signal.

Last week, another skidding accident, again triggered by a rain-slicked road, took place on the Great Road north of Pretty Brook Road.

Lela Franklin, 31, of Fairview Road, Skillman, oversteered when she hit a slippery spot in the road. Her car then ran off the right side of the road, hit a traffic sign, returned to the road and turned over. She received a contusion of the head and a bruise of the left leg. There were no charges by Pt. John Hammond.

TV SET TAKEN

From Stanworth Apartment A portable color television set valued at $400 was reported stolen Tuesday morning by the owner, Mrs. Dorothy Collins.

73 Stanworth Drive S. Pt. David Lewis, who investigated, reported that a window had been forced open to gain entry. Mrs. Collins called the police at 10:16 a.m.

Peter Rossi called police Monday to report the theft of a $100 portable television set from his first floor apartment at 30 Witherspoon Street. Also taken, he said, was a jar of foreign coins.

The thief entered through an unlocked window, according to the investigating officer, Pt. Joseph Wilhelm.

Last week, someone pried open a rear door to enter the 2 Nassau Street apartment of the Rev. William Knight, who conducts a street ministry in Princeton.

Taken was a .348 caliber rifle valued at $250, a 4 track stereo recorder and a portable TV set. The Rev. Mr. Knight placed a total value of $365 on the missing items.

The same day — last Wednesday — John D. Davies, 84 Heather Lane, reported to police that his wallet had been stolen from his coat which had been hanging in a closet in his home. — Continued on Next Page

THE REASONS WHY

We have presented, over the past two months, our position on County Government. We have given the reasons why we think the Democratic machine should be broken.

Only by voting on November 3 and only by voting for all three of us, can that machine be broken after 20 years in power.

The three of us ask for your vote and the chance to prove that we intend to make county government more visible and responsive to you.

FOR CONSERVATION
Commission Names Proposed. Six names will be proposed by Township Mayor John D. Wallace Monday night for membership on the new Conservation Commission. They will be subject to Committee approval.

James Saven and Mrs. J. V. A. Fine will be proposed for terms ending this December 31. Daught North will be named for a term ending December 31, 1971 and three for terms ending December 31, 1972. They are Mrs. S. B. Penick, Mrs. Roland Macchold and Russell Butler.

This leaves one vacancy, to be filled by a Township representative on the Regional Planning Board.

All those named above have been serving on the old Open Space Commission. Two members of that Commission recently submitted resignations. They are Carl Breuer and Thomas Sutherland. The new Conservation Commission can, by law, have no fewer than five, no more than seven members; one of whom must be on the Regional Planning Board.

Lyle Fitch, who evolved many of the financial policies of the Open Space Commission, will remain as consultant to the new body.

INCINERATOR READY?

No Deadline for Princeton's aging incinerator is next Thursday, November 5 and Borough Mayor Robert W. Cawley shook his head this week and said he didn't think present modifications would meet the deadline.

He added, however, that he doesn't expect the state to close the incinerator down. Modifications to the stack and the passageways leading to the scrubber are now being made according to the recommendations proposed by American Standard last week.

The Borough will write to Commissioner Richard J. Sullivan of the Department of Environmental Protection, describing the modifications in detail, the mayor said. The state has indicated that it would be lenient on the deadline so long as plans were in deed in the works.

Republican candidates for Borough Council have been saying that Princeton should "go it alone" on a new incinerator and not become involved with Mercer County. They say they are disturbed by the prospect of county control.

But Republican Mayor Cawley said this week, "We could work something out through the vehicle of the county or some other regional arrangement. We don't have ALL the most technical people here in Princeton."

The mayor explained that in his view, operation of the incinerator can be done cheaper with "higher volume" and he suggested it would be in the interests of Borough and Township to get either partners or customers to help out.

The new and tempting East Jersey incinerator would involve steep transportation costs, he pointed out. And West Windsor or South Brunswick are closer.

IF YOU LIKE TOWN TOPICS, the best way to express your appreciation is to mention it to our ad writers.

to a Princeton incinerator than Princeton is to Pringle.

Mercer County's plan has a rather stately four-year pace, and "a four year plan won't help us," the mayor said. "Either we've got to ask the county for faster action — like a one year plan — or we must make unilateral arrangements with neighbors."

"We plan to keep the Mercer County Improvement Authority informed, and we may suggest they go faster," the mayor said.

"THE QUALITY OF LEADERSHIP"

Marty Lombardo and Joe Moore are deeply concerned about the quality of life in Princeton, for all Princetonians. That is why they are running for Borough Council. The quality of leadership can determine the quality of life.

Good local government is sound administration and fiscal responsibility — but it is much more as well. It is the ability and the willingness to look at problems in their broadest, human context. It is the determination to be the master of the forces making for change in our community, and not their victim.

In this election, the choice is clear. Unlike their opponents, Marty and Joe believe:

- that law enforcement and education are needed to combat the narcotics problem, but they are only short-run answers. In the long run, we must find ways to involve all of our young people in the life of the community and in the solution of their own problems.
- that the incinerator is not a problem simply because of the new state standards, but because it is polluting the air we all breathe.
- that the great need of the two Princetons is for comprehensive planning. For instance, the solution to the parking problem is not just to build a new garage or to blacktop more land. We must consider what combination of new facilities, new traffic patterns, and new public transportation will best meet the needs of our community for the foreseeable future.

CITIZENS FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

TO OUR NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS IN PRINCETON TOWNSHIP:

We hope that you will be among the thousands of Princeton citizens who will vote this year on election day, November 3rd. We urge you to exercise this important right and we ask you to support our Republican candidate for Princeton Township Committee, Charles E. Meyer.

We are confident that Charlie Meyer is the best replacement for the retiring Bill Wilson, who served the community long and faithfully. Bill Wilson has personally endorsed Charlie as his replacement which is as strong an endorsement as can be given.

We feel that he is extremely well prepared for the job. His background as Vice President of a large corporation and his abilities to prepare and live within budgets are essential. We know that he will bring to Township Committee the qualities that we are losing with the retirement of Bill Wilson. We are sure that he will bring new energy, a fresh and constructive viewpoint and a remarkable responsiveness to human needs and problems to the work of Township Committee.

We the undersigned, are a group of citizens interested in providing the best possible local government. It is our opinion that Charles E. Meyer is the best candidate for Township Committee. We wholeheartedly endorse him for public office. We will vote for him on November 3. We urge you to do likewise, whether you are a Democrat, Independent or Republican. Your vote for Charlie Meyer will insure continued good government in Princeton Township. Your vote for Charlie Meyer will insure that Jack Wallace will continue as Mayor of Princeton Township.

IN RUSSIAN, PLEASE: Maria Sergeevna Lebedeva (center), is visiting Princeton High School Russian classes. In her own school in Moscow, students of English read Benwell and Chaucer, the Sonnets of Shakespeare and Fenimore Cooper, Whitman and Edgar Allan Poe, That's Barbara (Zarnet), PHS Russian student, and Ronald Gendak, PHS Russian teacher with her.

A charming ambassador from the Soviet Union, with bright blue eyes, pink cheeks and blonde hair has been in Princeton since October 17, teaching Russian at Princeton High, exploring supermarkets after school and comparing Princeton teenagers to her own teenage sons in Moscow. She is Maria Sergeevna Lebedeva, from Moscow's School No. 1, a special school for children gifted in languages. She teaches English literature and history here in Princeton.

"My hardest job is to teach Russian," she laughs, "but the students at the high school are so very interested in Russian they listen to me with wide eyes."

Maria Sergeevna Princeton has come to use the traditional Russian form of address, rather than Mrs. Lebedeva — is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Schmidt, 117 Brookstone Drive. It's a nice juxtaposition of host and guest. Mr. Schmidt is a stock broker who works on Wall Street. Maria Sergeevna is a card carrying member of the Communist Party.

Here on Exchange, she is in the United States as one of four Soviet teachers of English exchanging visits with four American teachers of Russian. The sponsor is the American Friends Service Committee. Last autumn, Ronald Gendak, PHS Russian teacher, taught English for three months in the Soviet Union under the same AFS program.

Enthusiasm, eagerness to see everything she's read a bout, keen interest in American ways characterize Maria Sergeevna's outlook.

"Princeton is so beautiful! An American elite live here, like Cambridge. It is not typical of other American cities, is it?" I was so surprised to see a large collection of Russian writers in the University's Firestone library. "It is a GREAT pleasure to see such hospitality everywhere is so ready to show me a good time."

The American Way. Good time! She has dined with several Princeton families. . . visited the University Chapel and accidentally encountered Leopold Stokowski. . . will at tend this Friday night a Halloween party (no Halloween in the Soviet Union) given by PHS language teachers. . . lunched with Dr. James H. Livingston, the University's Soviet specialist. . . and was served a very special lunch prepared by students in the PHS Home Economics class.

"Everything was done to a turn" or should it be "done to a turn"? And the girls were so prim and polite to me. I asked them please to teach me many more."

subjects and academic subjects exist together, is almost unknown in the Soviet Union.

On the academic side, Maria Sergeevna visited a current-history class and unexpectedly found herself bombarded by questions about Czechoslovakia, the role of the USSR in the Arab-Israeli War. "You know, I am not a politician. . . but I would like to visit that class again." And the students have said they'd like to have her back.

Her empathy with teens comes naturally because she has two sons, one 11 years old in the fourth grade, and a second 15 years old in the ninth grade.

"My son — he plays the guitar instead of doing his homework. And both my sons criticize my English accent — they think my English is not nearly so good as theirs."

Her English is, of course, very good indeed. It is British English, and she learned it only five years ago, in a strenuous regimen combining evening classes with intensive at-home studies.

On to New York. Last Saturday, with Mr. Gendasek and the Schmidts, Maria Sergeevna saw New York. She traveled as Mr. Gendasek's passenger, up the Turnpike and under the Hudson River, exclaiming all the way.

A certain serendipity follows Maria Sergeevna: not only did she happen to encounter Stokowski, she happened in New York to encounter a demonstration by about 300 members of the American Communist Party, complete with playing of the "Internationale."

Mr. Gendasek reports that she said merely, "Let's keep going."

Minutes later, they stepped

Parents Welcome to Attend Drug Lectures

Parents of students in any of the Princeton Regional Schools are invited to attend the formal lectures to be given in connection with the schools' state-required drug education program.

The lectures will be held in the auditorium of Princeton High School at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 11 and Wednesday, November 18.

Seating in the auditorium has been limited to 145 parents and will be assigned on a first-come-first-served basis. Parents must sign up in person — no phone calls accepted. Reservations may be made starting this Friday at the Valley Road School office.

Arrangements for parents to attend the lectures have been made by the PTO of the Princeton Middle School, Mrs. Mary W. Gibbons president.

A letter of invitation from Superintendent Philip E. McPherson will be sent to all elementary school parents; but Middle School PTO officials emphasize that the invitation is extended to all Middle School and high school parents as well.

into St. Patrick's Cathedral, back to New York to see where a black couple were being married in a formal wedding ceremony. "I don't seem to see much of what you call racism," she has observed.

While it was still light, the party from Princeton went to the Top of the Sixes for dinner, and as dusk and darkness fell, watched the lights come on in the city, on the George Washington Bridge, over Central Park. It was an excitingly clear evening, the kind a New York visitor rarely encounters.

This Saturday, she will go back to New York to see "1776." This Wednesday, it's Washington Crossing and New Hope. On a third New York trip, she hopes for more museums and the Empire State. Keenly interested in art, she has already had a tour of the University's Art Museum, with emphasis on art related to American Colonial history, so that she can more fully appreciate Washington Crossing Park.

American history. Of course, she knows about Washington. "Our students learn so much more about your country than you know about ours. We study your Revolution and Civil War, and the Abolitionist Movement and Harriet Taubman, your industrial development and your geography."

One of her few disappointments was the film, "Dr. Zhivago," which she saw in Trenton. "I was so upset! I couldn't sleep that night!"

She told Mr. Gendasek she would like to show it to everyone in the Soviet Union as an example of American propaganda. It is difficult, Mr. Gendasek explains, for a Soviet citizen to grasp the idea that a film is merely something made by a private company and doesn't necessarily represent official United States policy.

One of her American enthusiasms is paper dinnerware, and she plans to take back tablecloth, napkins, plates and cups in autumn leaf pattern, to give in Moscow an "American" party.

. . . a lovely and intelligent woman, having a simply won't do time.

SKILLMAN & TAGGART IN REVIEW

The establishment of a drug task force consisting of specially-trained enforcement personnel to work closely with the courts.

A co-ordinated approach to the center-town parking problem including use of underground space and parking garages.

Belief that Princeton should consider "going it alone" in the building of the required new incinerator so as not to have it fall under county control.

Skillman & Taggart For Borough Council

W h e n — UNICEF — Knocks. Princeton's annual UNICEF drive will be held Saturday, Halloween night, when children will visit homes, asking for contributions to assure children like themselves around the world better health and a better future.

This experience in charity is something the children can understand; for this reason, it is asked that individual contributions be given in small denominations to those who come to your door so that no child will be turned away with an empty carton.

UNICEF cartons will be distributed at the YMCA, Male's Book Store, the Jewish Center, First Presbyterian Church and the Public Library. Additional information is available at the library.

Cartons may be returned to the Y on Saturday night (7 to 10) and on Sunday at the Presbyterian Church (9 to 3) and at the Jewish Center (9 to 10 a.m. and 12 to 1 p.m.).

13th APARTMENT DENIED
To Rooming House Owner. The Borough Zoning Board last week denied the application of Edward F. Grant, 31 Jefferson Road, to add a 13th room to the 12-room boarding house he owns at 184 Witherpoon Street.

The board ruled that Mr. Grant had failed to show hard-ship.

In another case, after hearing a request by LaVake Jewelers, 44 Nassau Street, for two main business and two awning signs for its addition in the old Renwick Restaurant premises, the board granted two wall signs not to exceed 20 square feet and two awning signs not to exceed 14 square feet.

The ordinance permits only one main sign not to exceed 50 feet and one awning sign not over eight feet. In essence, the board granted a 6-foot awning variance and allowed LaVake an extra sign, but no increase in space.

In a third case, the board heard Herbert S. Ruben request a yard variance to permit the construction of a one-story addition that would connect his home at 101 Layfayette Road, which he recently purchased, to a three-car garage in the rear.

If the two were joined, the garage would no longer be an accessory building and would be in violation of rear yard requirements. The applicant pointed out to the board, however, that he would actually be reducing the rear yard distance by about five feet because he planned to remove an existing foot shed that joined at the curb. Douglas L. Rand, 18, 142 Hodge Road, paid $12 for a stop sign violation.

The board found the appli-

FIVE SPEEDERS FINED in Borough Court. Five Princeton area drivers were fined in Borough court Monday for speeding by Judge Theodore T. Tams Jr.

They were Marta F. Urizar, 31, of Skillman; $20; Lewis H. Terpening, 64, Bayberry Road; Edith W. Samson, 49, 247 Brookstone Drive; and Annette H. Carter, 46, River Road, Titusville, all $15; and Norma J. Vanbrunt, 34, of Skillman, $16.

Fined $10 each were DeWitt Gregory, 21, Willow Road, Belle Mead, no goggles, while riding a motorcycle and Ralph Matarese, 17, 14 Berrien Avenue, Princeton Junction, picking up passengers other than at the curb. Douglas L. Rand, 18, 142 Hodge Road, paid $12 for a stop sign violation.

In Township Court last week, Judge Burton Peskin fined James Young, 35, 68 Clay Street, $205 as an unlicensed driver. John T. Repp, 42, 199 Nassau Arms, Ewing Street, paid $20 for careless driving.

Paying $15 each were Lester Miegs, 44, 53 Castle Howard Court, passing a stopped school bus, and Lucy R. Lennon, 47, 151 Longview Drive, failure to yield right of way at an intersection. Mrs. Lennon pleaded not guilty.

Eugene J. Dumlall, 18, of New York City, was sentenced to two weeks in Mercer County Jail for allegedly stealing a TV set from a home on Clay Street.

Unable to raise the $200 bail at the time of his arrest, Dumlall had already spent the time in jail waiting for his case to be heard in Township court.

WALLACE IS CHOSEN
For New State Group, Mayor John D. Wallace of Princeton Township has been appointed one of the two Mercer County mayors named to serve on a new Governor's Committee of Mayors, designed to improve communications between New Jersey mayors and the Governor's office.

The second Mercer County mayor is Albert Driver of Washington Township. Mayor Wallace is a Republican, Mayor Driver is a Democrat.

The new Committee developed from a meeting in February of the State Conference of Mayors. At that time, mayors protested that they didn't have as important a voice in the state as they should have, and Governor William T. Cahill agreed.

At monthly meetings, and in new County Conferences, the mayors will tighten their contacts with members of the legislature, informing them of the needs of municipalities and providing them with information.

Emergency contact between State House and Town Hall can also be hastened, the mayors point out.

The two representatives from each of New Jersey's 21 counties were chosen on recommendation of State Senators, Assemblymen and county officials.

TEAGUE FINED $35

For Stolen Property Possession, William Teague, 29, of Princeton Pike was fined $35 last week in Borough criminal court for possession of a stolen television set. Judge Theodore T. Tams Jr. also placed him on six months' probation.

Teague pleaded not guilty. Charged with larceny, Richard Lockhart, 23, of Trenton, waived a preliminary hearing and was held for Grand Jury action. Nemiah Foxworth, 25, 145 Witherspoon Street, charged with the same offense, did not appear in court. His papers were sent to the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office for processing.

TWO HOMES ENTERED

In Butler Project, Two Princeton University graduate students told Township police Monday that their homes had been entered and robbed.

Jeffrey J. Bergner, 404 A Butler, listed a $80 portable stereo and $5 in cash missing. Entry was through a rear bedroom window. Theives also entered an unlocked rear door to steal a $139 television set from the home of John Brownrigg, 224-A King Street.

Snoring During Beethoven.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
We have a minor community problem which I feel it is time to face head on: snoring and/or heavy breathing levels during performances of slow movements of Beethoven sonatas at McCarter Theater.

I specify slow movements only because the sound level in your average first, second or last movement is sufficiently high to cover audience participation.

Last night the eloquent playing of Daniel Barenboim was marred for me and those in my immediate area by the snoring of two persons in our vicinity. This has nothing to do with age: one was clearly under 16 and the other well over 60.

We could not have expected Mr. Barenboim to alter his interpretation of the Beethoven slow movements by suddenly introducing farting to save us the embarrassment of un-scored audience noises. Slow movements are the hardest to play well anyway. Furthermore it was clearly an interested audience which sat there

Mr. Barenboim commanded such complete attention during these passages that one just wished to hear them straight.

Do you think any of these would help?

1. Engage in self examination. Before leaving for McCarter say to oneself "Why am I going out tonight?" If one goes it will inevitably involve one with his fellow man.
2. Avoid gin on concert nights: it can be fatal along about 9 pm.

3. Enenarrage. McCarter Theater is often "rent a nudg" services. Staff should be carefully trained since it is a well-known fact that the wrong kind of nudg will produce a startled reaction out of proportion to the original snore level.

4. Grandparents can be accompanied by grandchildren who for a fee will nudg during Beethoven slow movements. Since we're losing the young audience anyway this will teach the young when a Beethoven slow movement is happening and they might just LISTEN to the fast movements when they don't have to nudg.

5. Tickets at McCarter should be sold only in pairs. Partners alternate in listening and companion monitoring.

6. Parents should be compassionate, responsible and pay attention to their offspring during Beethoven slow movements. For the young who should be going to concerts slow movements are not where the action is.

My next letter will be about noisy hearing aid equipment now being used by McCarter concert goers. I was convinced at my first McCarter concert nearly seventeen years ago that most of the audience was nearly 90 years old. That now makes everybody nearly 107 and this is leading to more and more reliance on artificial hearing equipment. A lot of it doesn't seem to work properly.

The matter of "bolsters" was covered adequately by a gentleman from Trenton a year ago. Yet last evening the magical span from the end of the Appassionata to audience response was broken by the spectacle of insensitive early departers immediately after the final note Mr. Barenboim played.

In the still darkened auditorium these intrusions are like angry spikes thrust be-

Housing Lag Explained.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
I note in the report of the Candidates' Meeting held at the Community Park School on October 21 that the matter of Township housing for low-income and elderly families was brought into the discussion.

At this particular point in time, the responsibility for lack of progress in this crucial area must be fixed solely on the Federal Administration.

The Appropriations Committee must now consider what reductions must be made to bring the appropriations within the total recommendation of the Administration.

Unpublished Confession.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
It is not my intention, and the medium of "Letters To The Editor" to rebut Mr. Stanley C. Smoyer's letter appearing in your edition of Thursday, October 15.

I would ask only that you publish a portion of the letter addressed to Mr. Hartmann and myself that was omitted from the text of the letter for would in TOWN TOPICS. The quote is as follows: "You know, of course, that I have been and am a fairly active Republican, and therefore I won't attempt to deny some political motivation."

I must confess that I did not solicit this explanation from Mr. Smoyer. He must live with his own decisions, political or otherwise. I do feel, however, that your readers are entitled to Mr. Smoyer's refreshing but "honest" confession."

Claims Refuted.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
I have seen the Democrats claiming credit for everything that has happened since the Democrats were elected in November 1968. One of their claims deals with the creation of the Regional Planning Board as a member of both the old Township Board and of the new Township Board, and I would like to explain true facts.

The Dilley report of 1965 recommended that the Township and Borough Boards be merged into one Regional Planning Board. This was discussed at length in the two Planning Boards at time permitted between subdivision applications and a restudy of the Zoning Ordinance.

By 1968 the two Boards had developed a joint idea to a point where a four man joint committee was appointed to work out the details and draw up appropriate recommendations to present to the governing bodies. This committee was composed of the Senator and Carl Landholm for the Township and Arthur Murgan and Alan Carrick for the Borough.

Toward the end of 1968 an ordinance creating the Regional Planning Board was introduced and committed to the Township Committee and the Borough Council. At this point the two Democrats arrived on the scene, and in January 1969, their first month in office, they cast their votes in favor of the new Board. As the plan was unanimously approved by the five man body, it drew no difference which way they had voted.

One wonders if some of the other claims of the two Democratic candidates are as imaginative as this one.

Help Bicycles Riders.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
We just wanted to give you a suggestion to help the community.

As I was going home from school a bicycle was coming straight at me and I just missed getting hit by a couple of feet. I realize that it wasn't this guy's fault, since he was not aware of the rules of the road. Most kids don't like their children in the street.

We suggest that you make a certain part of the street only for bicycles: (1) because it is safer; (2) because if more people ride bicycles it would help the pollution problem.

Sometime last spring there was an Earth Day set up on Nassau Street. It was hoped that Princeton might be able to have some of their Earth Days.

BUSINESS In Princeton

INDEX FOLLOWS ECONOMY

Both are uncertain. Is the economy rebounding slowly but surely as the Nixon administration has been saying, or are we in for more problems before a turn around is achieved? The indicators point both ways at the moment, just like the plus and minus signs on the TOWN TOPICS business index for the third quarter.

Checking accounts have registered their third consecutive decline this year from quarter to quarter. They reached a high of more than $67 million in 1969's fourth quarter, and have fallen off ever since.

Savings accounts, however, continued to rise without interruption. Loans generally follow savings, when there is more money in the bank there is more to lend — and money is up also. Compared to a year ago, all three indicators are up, as is almost always the case.

New car sales are down 10% from last quarter, a usual occurrence when second and third quarter figures are compared. The strike against General Motors will affect fourth quarter figures to a much greater degree than third quarter ones.

The JC's drop from a year ago is not a true indication of the car sales business. The 681 figure for September 1969 in cludes cars sold by Chrysler Motors, which now refuses to give out that information.

Construction figures in Borough and Township are mixed. New housing starts have some fairly substantial percentages in both municipalities when the third and second quarters are compared, but the total number of houses built remained the same — 14.

Building permits increased in only the Borough, but their value showed good gains in both Borough and Township.

TWO ARE PROMOTED

At Opinion Research, Henry L. Dursin has been named vice-president of Opinion Research Corporation. He has also been given overall responsibility for Caravan Surveys, succeeding Michael Sanders, who has left the company. Mr. Dursin had previously been director of research for Caravan Surveys.

Dean Behrend has been appointed to the newly created position of general manager, marketing and sales for Caravan Surveys. Mr. Behrend had been a research executive.

Caravan Surveys are a special service offered by Opinion Research Corporation. They are regularly scheduled, shared-cost surveys among probability samples of the nationwide public (adults and teenagers) and among executives at the nation's 500 largest companies.

Mr. Dursin, a resident of Bear Brook Road, joined Opinion Research Corporation in 1968. Previously, he had served as director of research and in 1966, previously, he had served as manager of sales, sales and as supervisor of proposals for the National corporate research at General Electric. He received his B.A. degree in English from Harvard University.

Mr. Behrend, 10 Richford Road, Kendall Park, joined Opinion Research Corporation in 1966. Previously, he had served as manager of sales, sales and as supervisor of proposals for the National corporate research at General Electric. He received his B.A. degree in English from Washington and Jefferson College.

Trenton, N. J., October 26, 1970 89th YEAR No. 10

Freeholders: Split Ticket

In the Mercer County freeholder election, The Times Newspapers recommend a split ticket: John S. Watson and Paul J. Sollami, Democrats; Dominick Iorio, Republican.

If this threesome is elected, the Democratic Party will continue to hold a majority on the board. We believe this is justified by the board's generally good record of accomplishment under Democratic control. At the same time, a strong minority-party voice will be assured.

The Board, under Democratic majorities, acquired Donnelly Hospital when it became clearly the county's responsibility to do so. It created a fine park and recreation system. It set up an Improvement Authority that preserved and improved bus service in Greater Trenton and will in time almost certainly get the job of operating a regional trash disposal system. It has laid the groundwork for an excellent community college and vocational school. It has voted a reasonable and beneficial program of improvements at Mercer Airport.

Past Democratic majorities were weighted down with deadwood, but year by year since 1966 the party has been clearing it away — admittedly with some help from the voters — to the point that all its present freeholders are capable and qualified. These include Mr. Watson and Mr. Sollami, appointed earlier this year by the majority to fill board vacancies. Both are conscientious and intelligent men whose work in their brief service has indicated they would perform well if elected to full terms.

Mr. Iorio, the Republican whom we endorse, a professor of philosophy at Rider, is an earnest, thoughtful man with a background of active participation in politics to match his educational credentials. His views on the role of the county in a growing urban area like this one are forward-looking. His election would give Trenton a resident on the board which, though not essential, would be most desirable.

We do not endorse Mrs. Regina Meredith, Republican incumbent, because we believe her performance on the board has been too much a negative one. Mrs. Meredith has been unable to change her approach from that of a perennial candidate, which she was before 1967, to that of a constructive freeholder, and much of her time seems to be devoted to the seeking and exploiting of partisan issues. Her greatest failure of judgment, we believe, was her vote against county takeover of the bus system. She continues to argue that private enterprise would have rescued the buses, although there was never any reason to think a private buyer, if one could have been found, would have done any better by the people of this county than the late unlamented Capital Transit Company. On the other hand, there is growing recognition in the United States that good mass transit is a vital service deserving of subsidy. (Trenton was only one of eight major cities where, within a year's time, local government took over transit; others were Wilmington, Baltimore, Minneapolis, Duluth, Portland, Santa Cruz and Salt Lake City.)

Of the remaining two candidates, Democrat Gilbert Lugosy has a good record of public service in Hamilton Township, where he is a past president of the school board, and is articulate and personable. Paul McBride, Republican, is also a highly presentable candidate, but has no past record of public service or political activity on which to base an assessment.

"Across the country, there are men who seek political gain by attacks that polarize our people, rather than confront their real fears and grievances. Others condone this politics of division by their silence."

— John Lindsay

In Princeton, the Democratic team stands against that threat. It does not play upon people's fears.

Senator Harrison Williams and Congressman Frank Thompson have compiled outstanding records of dealing with real issues rather than rhetoric.

John Watson, Paul Sollami, and Gilbert Lagossy, candidates for freeholder, are pledged to the continuing reform of the Democratic Party, to programs of progress in narcotics control, transportation, crime, and welfare. Along with the county candidates for Sheriff and Clerk, Charles Kovacs and William Falcey, they offer backgrounds of experience in governmental affairs and concern for human dignity.

In Princeton Borough and Princeton Township, Joe Moore, Marty Lombardo, and Jay Bleiman share a desire to plan for the future of Princeton, to confront change before change confronts us, and to remain constantly involved with, in touch with, and open to the people of Princeton.

The problems are real. The differences between the parties on issues of war and peace, inflation and unemployment, and concern for human needs, are significant. This is the year to vote Democratic. This is a time for action, not polarizing slogans.

Continue Progress with Sound Management

"THE NEEDS OF OUR TOWNSHIP CAN BE MET BY SOUND AND LOGICAL PLANNING AND BY SOUND AND LOGICAL SPENDING. IT'S VERY EASY TO SPEND TAX DOLLARS BUT AS A BUSINESSMAN I KNOW IT IS IMPORTANT TO SPEND THE TAX DOLLAR WISELY."

"I HAVE TALKED TO THE HEAD OF EVERY DEPARTMENT OF PRINCETON TOWNSHIP. I KNOW THAT WE HAVE A DEDICATED AND COMPETENT GROUP OF PEOPLE WORKING FOR US. I WANT TO LEND THEM MY SUPPORT AND HELP INSURE CONTINUED REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP OF THE TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE TO GUIDE THEM."

"THE REPUBLICAN PARTY RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF, TEN YEARS OF CONSTANT TAX CONTROL IN LIGHT OF EVER INCREASING COST OF DOING BUSINESS AND EVER INCREASING SERVICES. THE LOCAL TAX RATE IS LOWER NOW THAN IT WAS IN 1960."

... Charles E. Meyer

"I'm voting for Charlie Meyer because he's an interested, concerned, and capable citizen who's dedicated to making this town a better town."

Ann Delano

"Charlie Meyer has proven leadership and management experience. I want good management and sound financial planning by our Township Committee. I plan to vote for Charlie Meyer."

Charles Greathouse

"His tax dollars do exactly what mine do — Help run our community — I want a taxpayer spending my taxes."

Frank Schley

"Charlie's interest and business acumen will be most helpful in preserving Princeton's character."

B. E. Bergesen

UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

A Guide
Second Edition

Compiled by Helen Van Zandt with
Jan Lilly

72 pages incl. 144 illus.
Cloth $5.00; Paper, $1.95

This is the latest, most complete guide to the campus. First published in 1964, it has now been updated to include new buildings, such as the Jabin Center, the computer center, and the mathematics-physics complex.

Yesterday (1756), there were only two buildings on campus: Nassau Hall and the Dean's House. Today, there are 120 buildings on 200 acres of main campus, reflecting the tastes of generations of Princetonians. It's all in the Princeton University Campus: A Guide — a must for every Princetonian's library.

When Women First Voted—Fifty Years Ago

THE FIRST STEP TOWARD WOMEN'S "LIB" occurred just 50 years ago, when they went to the polls for the first time. The added activity was such that one of the polling districts did not have its final tally until 11 a.m. next day. Among those who voted was Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, shown here with the President on an earlier occasion leaving their house at 82 Library Place.

Fifty years ago, the thought of the coming general election made Princeton election officials ache. It wasn't the Harding Cox race that bothered them. The women were to vote.

It was one thing to instruct a few men each year in the mechanics of casting a ballot — and quite another to teach all of the women. An optimist said his guess was that only 30% of the women eligible to vote would show up at the polls.

The women's vote would mean more work at the tally tables, it was pointed out. If enough women registered, the number of election districts would have to be increased unless the law requiring not more than 400 voters in a district was changed.

In 1920, Princeton Borough had seven districts and there was one district in the Township. Each district was manned by four officials at a salary of $50 each for preparing registration lists and conducting the primary and general election.

Call TOWN TOPICS 921-2200 For Election Results Tuesday Evening

As events moved along, Borough Mayor Charles Browne declared for Congress. The Negro women formed a GOLF Club and sponsored a rally dance with music by Hoagland's Band. And there was a mass meeting of women in Struve's Arcade Theatre on Nassau Street.

The women went to work on a house to house canvass, including in the sweep Mrs. Woodrow Wilson who was enrolled by affidavit. The result was the largest local registration: 3,100.

"Vote Early! Your Chance to Help the Election Boards!" was the reminder in the local press. Interest was so keyed up that the Garden Theatre arranged to receive election returns by direct wire after the second show.

The polls were open for 14 hours. All of the districts worked late on the tally. District 7 in fact, returning its tally at 11 a.m. the next day.

There was a record vote: 3,109 in the Borough and 469 in the Township. Both municipalities went Republican, gaining Harding 1,663 votes in the Borough and 319 in the Township, while Cox trailed with 1,037 in the Borough and 170 in the Township. Mayor Browne was defeated by the incumbent in his try for congress, although he was strong in the county.

But it wasn't the women who caused the election board's headaches. It was the 80 names written in for justice of the peace.

YOUTH CENTER ACTORS REHEARSE: "Ceremonies in Dark Old Men" will open this Friday at the Princeton Youth Center with the Center's repertory company of Princeton actors. Here Perry Owens and Terry Steuple rehearse a scene with William Cook (seated in that barber's chair that's part of the play) and John Counts.

appearance will wind up Mc Carter's fall season of pop rock concerts.

"CEREMONIES" OPENS
With Youth Center Company. Familiar faces and newcomers will join on stage at the Princeton Youth Center this weekend in the first production of the Center's new Hamsberry Arts Workshop.

It's "Ceremonies in Dark Old Men," by Lonne Elders II, opening this Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the Center's brand new (al-most brand new and most certainly refurbished) auditorium. A second performance will be given this Saturday at 8:30. Tickets for both are now on sale at the Center.

been thoroughly re done. Its most dramatic and striking feature is a stage entirely circled in black so that the actors seem almost to be playing in disembodied space.

Ted Woods, young architecture student at the University designed the new "space stage." The set for "Ceremonies in Dark Old Men" has been executed by Sylvester Vinson, who is a student at Princeton High. Bryan Freeman and John Hall designed the lighting (and that re done auditorium has a new battery of professional lights.) Don Evans is directing.

"Ceremonies in Dark Old Men" is set in Harlem, and depicts the attempts made by a family to change their lives. It had a long New York run.

Familiar names and faces are those of John Counts, William Cook and Lynette Campbell. The two men are both staff members of the Princeton Regional Schools. Mr. Counts at Littlebrook as librarian and Mr. Cook at Princeton High as a member of the English department faculty.

Miss Campbell, a senior at Princeton High, played the part of Ruth in last season's production of "Raisin in the Sun" at the high school.

Other community members of the "Ceremonies" cast are Howard Sweeney Jr. and Patricia White.

Three actors in the cast are university students. Terry Steuple and Perry Owens are both undergraduates at Princeton, and Mr. Owens is in addition a member of the University's Harambee House Players. Lenora Chambers is a student at Douglass College.

The Youth Center's auditorium, which has served many functions over the years, has SOMETHING old or new to tell. Try a Town Topics Classified. Call 924-2200 today.

UKRAINIAN FILM COMING

To McCarter, "Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors," (also known as "Wild Horses of Fire") will be shown at McCarter in the International Film Series next Wednesday, November 4 at 8 p.m.

The 1965 film is the first from the Soviet Union to be shown on the International Series at McCarter for several years. It was filmed in color in the Ukraine and is actually a folk legend, with songs, chants and atonal native music.

Single admissions will be on sale at the box office from 10 a.m. the day of the performance, and at the door Wednesday night.

"SPECTACULAR!"

From the Renaissance. Pro Musica, from New York, will recreate the Tudor court in "An Entertainment for Elizabeth," due at McCarter on Monday, November 16, at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale. Like Pro Musica's plays of Herod and Daniel, "An Entertainment for Elizabeth" has full costumes and stagecraft, with a tapestry backdrop suggesting the final decades of the House of Tudor.

The portrayal celebrates the unity of music, dance, poetry and song which characterized the Elizabethan court. John Hollander, American poet, prepared a text and Julia Sutton has arranged dances of the Renaissance era. John

IT'S NEW To Us

IT MAY BE A HULA YEAR

For Halloween Costumes. When did you last see a goblin costume — or a gremlin? Did you ever? This Saturday night all sorts of fantastic figures will come shuffling through the leaf piles to rap at front doors. And only the spooks and witches will be reminders of Allhallow's Even.

The gremlins and goblins have given way to monsters.

HALLOWE'EN FACES, in all sizes, shapes and moods, to remind you that Saturday is Halloween. The above were seen at Hinkson's on Nassau Street.

There are some very awesome masks in Hinkson's and Hinkson's on Nassau Street. And there are swishy grass skirts for little girls who prefer a gentler theme. We found flame-proof Hawaiian hula costumes at Hinkson's ($1.98) and elsewhere.

Hinkson's also has small size face masks for the curly set who catch you at the dinner table. We saw paper dresses ($1) for dressing up, witches hats and amusing straw boaters to top a natty Gay Nineties outfit that includes a handkerchief moustache, a red and white striped vest, tufted armbands and a rubber cigar ($2.98).

You can buy a black visored cap with black hair attached, or a hippie kit that includes a plastic flower, eye glasses, and a wild mop of hair. Hinkson's also has an interesting assortment of rubber bandages to add to a horror costume, (the handiest is $1.19); and that unforgettable sick rubber chicken that the kids toss around.

There are lanterns, Halloween earrings, trick-or-treat bags in plastic or heavy paper, and a fine supply of party decorations that include cutouts of green-faced witches, tramps, owls, scare crows and scared spooks. Halloween cards, too, to send to the youngsters you know who may be sick and out of the running this important day. Dropping in Zinder's, we were confronted by the largest face masks we've ever seen — Mardi Gras types that are so big that the wearer sees out of the mouth. The mask is a complete head in various zany designs.

Zinder's is the place to go for hair — any kind you want — braided, loose, blond, shaggy. And it is here that you'll find an unbelievable collection of rubber masks, from genial horrors to terrifying horrors. The demi-world leans down at you (Prices about $2.40 to $4.50).

And to go with them, all sorts of ready-made costumes. For pluses, there are bald parts, Keystone Kop helmets, rubber hands and vampire fingernails (long and black), and a whole lot more. Would-be witches have a choice between pink or black pointed hats. There are all kinds of mustaches, from dishing to "Menu" (39 cents); eyeballs that roll; and sequined, feathered demi-masks. Can can garters, too. (59 cents)

Woolworth's will outfit a youngster as the Tin Man, or Fred Flintstone, as Bozo the Clown with a lioner in the mask; as an old tramp, or Cinderella, Aquaman, Caspar the Friendly Ghost, Bugs Bunny or as an astronaut. (Prices $1.73 to about $9. Many choices.)

There's flameproof hair — from Uncle Sam to Goldilocks — and all sorts of plastic face masks. The hilariously dress up kit includes a cornucopia and flameproof hair ($1.99).

Woolworth's has a great assortment of trick-or-treat stuff such as small individually-wrapped samplers of 10 cent candy bars, tiny sticks of chewing gum, candy corn and long strips of lollipops.

It also has packs of small trick-or-treat bags to put a fair assortment in (60 for 29 cents). For the Halloween party or dinner table, candle figures, party plates, plastic pumpkins of all sizes. Fill the largest pumpkin (69 cents) with stuff for the night sprites, or put a candle in it.

Anyway, be ready. It's the night the Great Pumpkin is supposed to show. . .

SHOPPING AT BAILEY'S

Bailey's in the Princeton Shopping Center is really several shops in one. And if you haven't been there in a while, we suggest you drift in, because the shop has stocked as thoughtfully for the large Bailey's is showing some interesting poncho sets, combining the top with a skirt that is to-the-knee or mid length. (size 8 to 18) Made of mohair-and-wool, and the price is $39.95. There's a collar on the poncho of navy and black lounge-weave. Another, in a bias cut of rust and navy weave, is collarless.

buy now for Christmas gifts are both nylon and the hard to find cotton quilts. In quilted nylon, for instance, a gently embroidered necktie of roses at the boat neck with the flower re-appearing at intervals between the front buttons. To match is a beautifully lined nylon tunic gown, repeating the flower theme at the neck and on the brief straps. (Pink or aqua)

The cotton quilt comes in a blue and aqua print, pink and lavender. There's a ruffled edge yoke running deep at the front, and pockets in the side seams. ($19)

Bailey's has the new version of last season's maxi coat that got muddy around the hem in the slush. This is cut short to mid length and comes in a black broadcloth with a beautiful lining. There's a tailored collar and a long double row of buttons down the front, crossed at the waist with a wide black belt. We saw sleek little skirts for the girls, mini length, some of them, others a little longer. And the extremely of tractive Craig Crasley tops with cuffed long sleeves. Many are nylon that looks like a polished cotton.

For the larger woman, say size 20s, some very dainty gusseted looking knit dresses for best and near best. In rich blue, a double knit that can be thrown into the washer. There's raised stitching in a geometric design for front trim. ($22.95) It's a Monaco double knit that has excellent shape retention.

Since Christmas is only a month and a half away, we think you'll want to see the Kayser mini sleepers at Bailey's, absolutely charming. In the gowns in nylon tunic that are only $6. Think apricot, or lavender, or aqua in a full cut shortie gown with an inset yoke of embroidered nylon net below the halter neck. The embroidery is delicate, not splashy. The mini sleeper is a good gift to square away early.

Also, in challis print, a "cat suit" as it is a short nightgown, slightly ruffled at neck and hem, with pajama bottoms that are elasticized at the ankle, above the seated in feet. And there's a ruffled nightcap to match for your Early Am. erica feeling.

Nurses uniforms - pantsuit variety - come in five styles at Bailey's. Made of rayon and prices at $19 to $29.

GLEE CLUBS TO PERFORM
At Alexander Hall. Perpetuating a tradition that goes back several decades, the Princeton and Harvard Glee Clubs will present a joint concert in Alexander Hall on the Princeton University campus Friday, November 6, at 8 p.m. Making his Princeton debut will be the new conductor of the Harvard Glee Club and Radcliffe Choral Society, P. John Adams. Mr. Adams was for several years conductor of the Harvard University Chorus and prior to that, Assistant Conductor of the Harvard Glee Club.

The Harvard group will sing a group of Latin motets by Josquin, Dufay, Monteverdi, and others, to open the program. Their second group will include four part songs for male voices by Schubert, and the seldom-performed "Verbundenerheit" by Arnold Schönberg. A selection of Harvard songs will round out its performance. Also making their debut in this concert will be the 40 sopranos and altos of the Princeton Glee Club. They will sing a setting of the 23rd Psalm by Schubert, and will join with male members of the group in presenting the "Four Slovak Folk songs" of Bartok and choruses from "La Belle Helene" of Offenbach.

The Princeton tenors and basses will also sing the Dufay "Magnificat in the eighth mode" accompanied by a trio of trombones, and the "Tartarelli" by R. and L. Thompson. The "Princeton Football Medley" will conclude the Princeton group's final section of the program.

Harvard and Princeton will join in performing the "Princeton Chorus" from "Fidelio" by Beethoven, in honor of the 200th anniversary of the composer's birth. The alma matters of the two universities will conclude the program.

Tickets for the concert are on sale at the Princeton University Store and from Princeton Glee Club members. Remaining tickets will be on sale at Alexander Hall on the evening of the concert.

AUDITIONS THURSDAY

For Cactus Flower. Auditions for "Cactus Flower," the fall production of the Princeton Players, will be held Thursday evening at 8 in the old fire house on North Main Street, Princeton. Director Ray Durazo reports there will be open casting and anyone interested is invited to participate. The Players will present the Abe Burrows comedy the first two weekends in December.

PLAYHOUSE

On a Clear Day You Can See Forever (now playing) has Barbara Streisand in the double role of a looky modern girl with powers of extra sensory perception and a previous incarnation of her present self - an 18th Century English girl who marries into the aristocracy twice and disastrously.

Nick Streisand switches from a Brooklyn tinged accent to high bred British and from a chic miniskirt wardrobe to a Arnold Scassi to lavish Regency period clothes designed by Cecil Beaton. Yves Montand plays the psychiatrist who hypnotizes the girl trying to learn whether or not she is a fraud. The costumes and sets are dazzling. "Come Back to Me" and "On a Clear Day" are among the musical numbers fetchingly staged by Vincente Minnelli.

GARDEN

Joe (now playing) is a commentary on America today, seen through the eyes of two widely contrasting men who share a distrust of youth.

The lead role of Joe is uncanonically brought to life by Peter Boyle as a $150 a week factory worker, somewhat threatened by the liberals and hippies a like. He believes that "42 per cent of all liberals are queers." The lives of Joe and his wife, brilliant K. Callen, become involved with those of polished $50,000 a year ad executive Dennis Patrick and his chic wife, Audrey Claire.

Some sequences are brutal - the murder of a hippie do pusher, the hippie orgy, complete with nudity and pot; and Joe's panic-stricken shooting of the hippies he believes have robbed him. But never to be forgotten is Boyle's performance as the lower middle class "hard hat." The color photographs of New York from Bellevue Hospital to Times Square showing alleys, is of high quality.

Why Plan to Vote DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN

By R. W. van de Velde

By Henry S. Patterson II

Robert van de Velde, 222 Western Way, is director of the undergraduate program of Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. He has been active in Princeton's Democratic party for many years and is a Bureau representative on the Princeton Regional Planning Board.

I plan to vote for Martin P. Lombardo and Joseph P. Moore for a number of reasons. I consider valid and hope you will agree with.

First, they are young men and our Council has all too rarely had anyone on it who was under 40, let alone years below that.

Second, each of them in his own endeavors and in his own way has been markedly successful in working with groups of young people. They have encouraged the best in students of our young people in the very difficult area and have existed their active help in a variety of highly worthwhile work.

Third, Marty and Joe are both native sons of Princeton, and though as a "newcomer" with a total of only about 20 years here I sometimes find fault with some native sons, they are two are alert and concerned and progressive.

Fourth, Joe Moore and Marty Lombardo represent two major segments of our people which have never, so far as I am able to determine, been represented on Borough Council.

Fifth, somehow it seems to me that these four reasons add up to more than the simple sum of their parts. It seems to me that in this combination of youth and alertness and energy, of nativeness and concern for the future, of localness and representative ness, there emerges a real sense of the grassroots.

Government by the consent of the governed is the foundation of our system, and since it is so there is always a special place in the American dream for politics at the grassroots for that is where "consent" begins.

Over the years, by and large, we in Princeton have not been fortunate in our "town fathers," but it is time now to make room for a couple of "town sons" to take their turn at the wheel.

By voting for Martin Lombardo and Joseph Moore, by urging you to vote for them, I am saying as I hope you will say,

O.K., you young Princetonians, let's see you join your elders in the serious duties of governing this town. Let's hear you inject some new points of view into the important and trying (and sometimes, tired) deliberations of the Council on all the maddening stream of problems which face any small town in 1970. We put you on the Common Council (what a beautiful old English, anti-king, anti-squire rank that name has!) to assure ourselves that all the people of our town will have both an ear and a voice there.

That's expecting a bit from you sure, but we think you have what it takes. Go ahead and show us and not only us, but the doubters too, that we were right, that the young men of this town and from this town care every bit as much about it as we have and do, and that they can be every bit as confident in helping to govern it as we are the older men and women you will be joining.

Henry S. Patterson, 46 Westcott Road, was mayor of the Borough for eight years, from 1961 to 1969. He is executive vice president of the Elizabethan Manor, Mr. Patterson's company.

After eight years as the Mayor of Princeton Borough, I am quite obviously have come to definite conclusions as to the qualifications Council candidates should have to make them the preferred candidates. Messrs. Skillman and Taggart have proven business and administrative abilities, combined with compassion for and understanding of the varied problems and concerns of all Borough residents. These are the principal qualifications so necessary for Borough Councilmen.

It is an obvious fact that Princeton has problems. At most every time we pick up a newspaper, listen to a local news broadcast or walk in our destination within the Borough (I wish more of us did), we are made aware of our problems—drugs, parking, traffic, housing, the future of the central business district, to name a few.

Tuesday Evening

These problems cannot be ignored as being beyond our control. Neither can they be solved by emotional rhetoric and grandiose plans that surpass the practical economic ability of the Borough to finance. Will it be progress when we solve one problem and at the same time make it financially impossible for many on a fixed income to continue to own their homes and live in Princeton?

The Borough's problems can only be solved by experienced leadership—the kind of leadership that will propose and most importantly, follow through, on imaginative programs that will then the manpower and financial capabilities of the Borough and surrounding municipalities. It is important to understand that Princeton cannot solve its problems alone, nor can it solve them without some added expense.

The point is that our willing ness to cooperate with others, to provide police (for instance) and thus to increase municipal costs must be carefully thought out and kept within the bounds that the Borough can afford. Van Skillman and Charlie Taggart will be valuable additions to the team—and it is a team not a political party—that leads your Borough.

Van Skillman, a life long resident of Princeton, has been a Princeton businessman located within the center of the community for 23 years. Therefore, he is continually aware of the physical as well as the social and financial problems of the Borough and Township. As father of five children ranging from elementary school to college age children and as one with many years as an active participant in youth activities, we know first hand what we must do and not do for the youth of today.

Charlie Taggart has had broad administrative experience at the University. This experience will be valuable as it will relate directly to his duties as a member of Borough Council. It will also be important in another way. Our educational community is a community asset for many reasons not the least of which is that it contains a reservoir of experts in many fields who have in the past and will again in the future, be helpful in assisting the Borough solve special problems. Charlie Taggart will know who to and how to tap this reservoir when necessary. Because he, too, works in Princeton Borough, Charlie will also be available, not just on meeting nights, to work on Princeton's present and future problems.

The Borough has always been a balanced residential, educational, and business community. All these are important elements in what has made Princeton, Princeton. Skillman and Taggart are representatives of all three. They will move with the times, as they must. But, at the same time, they will represent us all.

I will vote for J. V. Skillman and Charles L. Taggart for Princeton Borough Council on November 3rd.

The Rising Generation

THE WILLINGNESS TO LEARN

by Marguerite Nelson, Princeton High School, Class of 1971

Teens have varied relationships with their parents. Parents can sometimes be a teen's best friend or enemy; the relationship depends upon the faith each has in the other.

If a parent and a teen want to develop a strong relationship, both must work at it, then there need not be the so-called "generation gap." "Generation gap" was probably the first used by a teenager who didn't feel that his parents were changing with the times, or by a worried parent who had difficulty understanding the reasoning of his child. It's a safe way of saying, "We don't understand each other, so let's blame it on the difference in our ages and forget it!" I don't believe this "generation gap" is necessary.

A conscientious parent tries to grow in understanding with his child. The child discovers that his parents are as curious about his thoughts and ambitions as he is. As soon as a child realizes that his parents are trying to understand more about the new generation, he gains confidence in his parent and therefore feels the freedom and has the ability to talk about their mutual problems. This willingness to learn about each other erases problems caused by the difference in their ages.

Parents' ideals are challenged most of all at the Junior High School level, when the child meets strong personalities of his own age. He questions the validity of his parents' decisions as compared to the decisions of his friends' parents.

During this period it is very easy for the child to break his relationship with his parents. He feels he's growing up, and tries harder to solve his problems without consulting his elders. The typical questions, "Is there something on your mind that you'd like to talk about?", or "Remember, if you have any problems, that's what we're here for", are usually not enough to persuade him to discuss the matter at hand.

Sometimes it is impossible to get the child talking on what is bothering him, but often, if the parent starts a discussion on a controversial topic in a short time the real problem appears. If small problems are not approached during the Junior High level, high school students find it very difficult to approach their parents later, and vice versa.

Many parents don't take the time to grow with their children as they pass from Junior High School to Senior High School. It is important that parents stay close at hand, for at this stage the teen starts forming his own opinions and questioning the things he had once accepted willingly.

There must always be complete honesty from the parent, backing a negative reply to a permissive question. The parent must be fair with his decisions and judge each situation individually.

As the teen begins his new life at a secondary school, he starts to accept responsibility and makes decisions based upon what he has been taught at school, at home, and by others around him. At this age he should be placed in certain situations where he must use his own judgment. If he makes wise decisions, he should gradually be given more and more responsibility.

For example, if a high school student is given a curfew which augments slightly each year, then perhaps, by his or her senior year there should be no curfew.

If the student has no curfew and is mature enough not to take advantage of the privilege, he will weigh the possibilities — sleep or a good time. (Parents may be surprised, but most teens look to the weekends for sleep, and then fun.) The student feels as though the parent trusts him by letting him make adult decisions and is more apt to insure his maturity through wise handling of his privilege.

My parents and I have a very close relationship. I expect them to honestly give their views and comments on situations that arise, but it is most important that they let me make my own decisions. Many times they have let me on my own to solve my problems, not really knowing if I would make the right decisions, but having faith in what they'd taught me.

A good number of my decisions weren't always the wisest and I've learned from my mistakes. I'm grateful, however, because they have always given me another chance to prove myself after each wrong decision, and their faith in me has strengthened the faith I have in myself.

47,000 POUNDS AIRBORN: What looks like an elevated express train is actually a 60-foot oil storage tank, one of four the Princeton University is installing next to its boiler behind Baker Hall. The 12-foot diameter tank will hold 50,560 gallons of low sulphur oil, the type anti-pollutionists love. When installed, the four tanks together with two others that were installed last year will give the University an oil storage capacity of 268,000 gallons — "enough for a six-day supply at peak periods," according to Foster Jacobs, head of the university's Department of Grounds and Buildings. "Mostly, we burn just gas, anyway," Mr. Jacobs added. "We burn oil only when there is severe cold." Installation of the tanks will complete the conversion of the University from coal to gas and oil. VOTE DEMOCRATIC NOV. 3

Maid for by the Mercer County Democratic Committee, Richard J. Coffey, chairman, 120 Sanhican Drive, Trenton, N. J.

Growing West Windsor needs new leadership

Once West Windsor was primarily a farm community. And a few concerned citizens sat on the Township Committee and handled the affairs of the Township.

Now many of those farms are growing split levels instead of alfalfa; colonials instead of corn. But for the most part those same citizens are still on the township Committee.

And they just don't understand the new problems that growing West Windsor faces.

It's not entirely their fault. For decades, there were only Republicans on the Committee. With no Democrats to push them, they didn't have to come up with innovative programs. So they didn't.

This year there are two Democrats running for Township Committee: Mike Greschak, and Lance Marshall. Two men who have the kind of solutions to our Township's problems that will enable us to keep a good part of our rural flavor while we accommodate our rapid growth.

They've put in years of hard work for our Township, on the Board of Education, on the Planning Board. Now they want the chance to put that experience to good use on the Township Committee.

Vote for Greschak and Marshall this November. They're the best West Windsor has to offer.

ART In Princeton

THREE NEW EXHIBITS

Two-Man Show at Artisan. The two-man show at the Artisan, 30 Witherspoon Street, featuring Margaret Kennedy and Helen Rose is an exhibition no one should miss.

Margaret Johnson's distinct style and intellectual approach have always been a delight to the Princeton art lover. She is primarily concerned with line texture and the subtle relationships between the elements of pictorial design. It is not the isolated shape or line that is important but the relationship between it and the form adjacent to it.

She seldom begins the creative process with a preconceived idea or plan of the finished product. For this reason she finds more freedom working with actual materials, metals, string, cardboard, etc., than with the restrictions of paint and brush.

She quite often rearranges the same forms into three or four versions of a print, all of them pleasingly different. If the completed work reminds her of an emotion, thought, or actual object from the world of realism, she then uses an apt title.

The collograph "Beginnings" displayed in this show was purchased for the collection of Firestone Library.

Helen Rose likes the challenge of incorporating texture and forms into compositions.

PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG LADY, the work of Peter G. Cook of Kingston. A one-man show including other portraits as well as Maine sea and landscapes of his will open next month at the Present Day Club.

She meets this challenge well by mixing metal and found objects with the wool of her weavings, thus achieving successful effects.

The subject matter of Helen Rose's work is dominated by themes dealing with life: sons, children, and hope permeate her work.

A large bold weaving entitled "Circle and the Squire" is especially excellent in the use of color and form. The linear feeling of motion in her hatiks give them a special vitality. She has created four rugs representing the seasons. The one displayed in the gallery named "Fall Sun" is well designed and executed.

At Gallery of Fine Arts, Rita Wolpe Barnett is showing oils and gouaches at the Princeton Gallery of Fine Arts. Although her work could not be termed social comment, it is imbued with sympathy and understanding for the human condition. Scrutiny of the common person yielded the painting "East Window." A pale elderly face peers halfheartedly from between painted curtains, a slight familiar to any city dweller.

"The Critics," a large oil, depicts a circle of figures deep in conversation. The scene has the appearance of a cocktail party and any devotee of such parties realizes critical comment to be a basic component of such conversations.

A small gouache entitled "The Watch" is a sensitively rendered scene portraying a black woman keeping vigil over a figure reclining on a couch.

These three paintings portray varied emotions; loneliness and suspicion in the old woman, satirical comment in "The Critics," and apprehension in "The Watch." They are painted with facility and a respect for the qualities of the oil medium.

At Eye for Art, The Eye for Art is exhibiting the work of French artist Jean Janssen. His lithographs have a subtle, painterly quality unusual to the medium.

Simple, expressive contour line is used to delineate his figures with slight modelling added in muted colors. The whole effect is softly romantic without being cloying.

The print "Fille au Panier" is a fine example of the lithographs in this excellent exhibition.

which will run through November 29, will include 25 large drawings in black and white, executed in 1850 and 1870, in pen and ink and wash.
This is the second exhibition of Mr. Vicente's work held at The Art Museum. The first, in 1966, presented his strongly colored oils and collages and was the inaugural exhibition for the newly erected museum building.

Mr. Vicente's work is intimately connected with the American school, the Abstract Expressionists in particular — although his impeccable sense of meter, his sensibility reveal his European ties and his affinity with the school of Paris. The solid understructure of his compositions, the shifting layers of linear adjustments betray his early interest in and preoccupation with Cezanne and the Cubists.

In these recent drawings," notes Dr. P. Joseph Kleihner, Director of the Art Museum, "Mr. Vicente deliberately turns away from color as he has frequently in the past), to examine a world envisioned in black and white. The artist draws the viewer into a deeper experience of pictorial essentials. It is a rare privilege to share so intimately the vision and perceptions of a distinctly unshuffled contemporary artist."

A native of Segovia, Spain, Vicente studied sculpture at the Escuela de Bellas Artes de San Fernando in Madrid. He then turned to painting and had his first one-man show in Madrid in 1936. In the late 1920's and early 1930's, he worked in Paris and participated in 1928 and 1930 in the Salon des Surindépendants, a member of the group. He came to New York in 1936 and has made his home there since. The exhibition is open to the public Tuesday through Saturday from 10 to 4, Sundays from 2 to 4. The Museum is closed on Monday.

LECTURE TUESDAY

On Photography. The second lecture in an annual series at Princeton University by outstanding figures in the world of photography will be presented by the University Art Museum on Tuesday. Presented by Paul Capogreco, diving, washed photography and teacher, this second Alfred Stieglitz Memorial Lecture will be at 8:30 p.m. in McCormick Hall on campus. Mr. Capogreco's topic is "Let's Look at Some Photo-graphs."

The Stieglitz Lectures, which are given concurrently with the opening of exhibitions of works of photography, were established last year by David H. McAlpin of Princeton, a member of the Class of 1920, who played a major role in creating the first Department of Photography at the Museum of Modern Art. An exhibition of Mr. Capogreco's work opens at the Art Museum on November 4 and will run through the 29th.

NEW EXHIBIT ON VIEW

At Jones Art Gallery, A special showing of more than 10 works by Westfield Artist, Mrs. Doris Betz is now being presented at The Peter Jones Art Gallery, 137 Main Street, Flemington, for the entire month of November.

A graduate of Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts, Mrs. Betz has exhibited in state and national shows. Her works are in many private collections and she has received numerous awards, the most recent being the 1970 Schuster Award in the East Orange tri-state show. Mrs. Betz is presently an art instructor for the Rahway School system, a past Vice-President, Secretary, Program Chairman and State Show Chairman of the Westfield Art Association.

Mrs. Betz recently returned from a tour of Greece and her exhibition includes some new works from her tour. The show will be open to the public from November 2 until November 30, weekdays from 10 to 5:30 and on Sundays from noon to 5.

Brown Next for Princeton, But November Harvest May Be Meagre

ONE OF 12 LOOSE FOOTBALLS: Princeton and Penn dropped the ball 12 times during their game at Franklin Field Saturday, the Tigers being guilty of nine fumbles. This one created the most suspense as five or six players on each team had a shot at it, the ball rolling 24 yards behind the Quaker line of scrimmage as they scrambled for it. First man to get a firm grip was linebacker Phil Barbaccia, giving Princeton possession on home team 32. Tigers failed to score at that point, but eventually hung on for 22-16 triumph. SPORTS In Princeton Traditionally, the fifth game on Princeton's football schedule has been the measuring stick of future success. In the early 50s, the Tigers blasted previously unbeaten Cornell teams and went on to perfect seasons. As the decade progressed, it almost invariably developed that if the Orange and Black had trouble with the Ithacans, November games against Harvard and Yale would prove more than they could handle.

Now, Pennsylvania has replaced Cornell as a measuring stick of Princeton ability. Two years ago, the Tigers lost to the Quakers and the sign post tilted downward to a 4-5 season and second division finish in the Ivy League.

A year ago, a Quaker team which finished 4-5 — about as this one will — was trampled by the rapidly improving Tigers, 42 to 0. The game proved the springboard for a tremendous leap from troubled times at the start of the 1968 season to a share of the Ivy League championship.

Five games into the current season, Princeton has a slim 2-2 to 16 triumph over an unimpressive Penn team and still appears to have more problems than it can solve in the remaining month of play. Beset with a host of difficulties of its own, Brown is unlikely to give the troubled Tigers much competition Saturday at Providence. However, for the first time this fall, there is sufficient reason to wonder whether Princeton can play good enough football to win any of its November games.

The Problem Is Mutual. Both platoons wearing Orange and Black this fall have serious problems with the same phase of the game: the offense can't mount a serious passing threat and the defense can't stop one. The statistics defy belief: in three Ivy games this fall, the Tigers have gained a TOTAL of less than 200 yards in the air, whereas their three opponents have all AVERAGED more than 200 yards against them.

Principal cause for concern lies in the fact that improvement does not come as the season grows older. At Philadelphia Saturday, Princeton very nearly lost to a Penn team whose quarterback, Pancho Meier, has an ankle so weak that all he could do was pass. Never was there a question that he would run, yet after sitting on the bench into the second quarter, he completed 11 of 23 and very nearly won the game on the last play of the afternoon.

Meanwhile, the Tigers' own passing game languishes because the deep aerial remains totally lacking from their arsenal. Against Penn, they completed 50%, a highly satisfactory average, but the seven that found the mark gained an average of exactly five yards apiece. All were virtually identical, thrown into the flat to split end Pete Hauck (5) or flanker Brian McCullough (2). The pattern called for the receiver to stand and wait for the ball, and not once did they gain more than a yard or two before being tackled.

The pass defense is in deep trouble because the pass rush is non-existent. Defensive ends Steve Sikora and Norm Townsend have been blocked from the outside, and the interior linemen are unable to put pressure on the quarterback from a direct angle. The net result is a preponderance of success on the part of opposing teams regardless of the best efforts of the Princeton secondary.

Fumbles Mar Running Game. Not by any means traceable to their first appearance on Astroturf, the Tigers fumbled nine times, a deficiency in ball handling conceivably unmatched by a Princeton team in four decades or more. Only eight show on the statistics — one of the most costly, deep in Penn territory, was erased when the Quakers were off side.

Of the remaining eight, four were recovered by the home team, the last such very nearly providing the stepping stone to victory. It may, however, have served its purpose: in the future, the odds are that if they are less than nine points ahead in the final minute, the Tigers will go with a motionless quarterback keeper instead of sending a running back slashing into the line for meaningless yardage.

score in Ivy League history — 3 to 2. It was, however, anything but a well-pitched game.

Both teams — and the officials as well — made so many mistakes that the aura of excitement of a closely-contested battle was dampened by a awareness that much mediocre football was being played. Ever Penn's last gasp chance to win was the result of a grievous Princeton error as the clock ran out. Pete Boyle intercepted a long pass and the game was apparently over.

However, a Tiger defensive back was called for pushing a Penn player who wasn't with in ten yards of the ball and the Quakers were awarded another play from the Princeton five. Had Micir been able to pose the threat of a run, the last play might have resulted in a touchdown, but anchored pretty much in one spot, he passed into the end zone where safetyman Jeff Davis baited it down without difficulty.

The field goal by Eliot Berry that gave Penn a one-point lead at the end of the half went through the bars from 37 yards out after the clock had stopped. If the Quakers had won by scoring seven points with time remaining at the end of the game, it would quite possibly have been the only game of its kind in all of intercollegiate football history.

Almost as disheartening as the ineffective passing game was Princeton's difficulty in scoring after that had penetrated inside the Quakers' ten-yard line. During the afternoon, the Tigers ran 14 plays from within 10 yards of the end zone but made only three touchdowns. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Orange and Black met on the board first when Penn quarterback Phil Procter tumbled behind his goal line and Bill Heferman, the Quakers' center, fell on the ball for a safety. The Tigers would have taken that lead into the dressing room had it not been for a fumble that quarterback Rod Plummer lost in Princeton territory with 19 seconds left. Berry's field goal from 37 yards gave the Red and Blue the lead at the intermission.

A five 31-yard punt return by Alumnus Bill Early set up the visitors' first TD, which took eight plays to grind out from the Penn 11. John Barbes booted the extra point in the absence of Jim Aiol, out with a back injury.

Twelve minutes into the third period, Princeton had its second touchdown. Plummer got over from a yard out to cap a 42-yard drive. After the home team narrowed the gap to 18, much of the ball game was decided as Princeton managed to run more than nine minutes off the clock by covering 80 yards in 19 plays, all but one of them on the ground. The key was a fourth-down kick punt on which Hank Bjorklund ran beautifully for 18 yards to keep the Tigers on the board.

Penn came back with its final score at 12:57 to post a 22 tie on the board, and amazingly had four more shots at winning in the last two minutes. The first came when the Quakers' center, who had a big kickoff on the Princeton 42, Pete Boyle intercepted a pass,

QUICK LOOK AT BROWN

OFFENSE: In deep trouble, Brown has scored only 29 points in last four games as passing attack is virtually nonexistent and ball carriers have been contained.

DEFENSE: Not bad, but has been heavily overworked because Brown rarely have the ball for any length of time.

CHIEF ASSET: Co-captain Gerry Bates is the best ball carrier. Considerable halfback strength exists in last four games.

CHIEF PROBLEM: Lack of take charge quarterback who can throw hard.

TYPE OF ATTACK: Triple Option offense after the Texas-Wisconsin set.

Penn held for downs and look over on its own 42.

Barry Richardson intercepted the next pass, and with 40 seconds to go, Penn had no time outs and Princeton apparently had the ball game.

But Bjorklund funned and the Quakers had two chances to score. Pete Boyle intercepted but interference was called ten yards behind him, and the home team had one more shot at victory, on which it could not quite capitalize.

Brown the Cellar-Dweller. The question of which Ivy team will finish last in 1970 was apparently decided three weeks ago, when Penn defeated Brown, 17 to 9. It is likely that the Bruins will suffer through a 14 season, for after topping Rhode Island in their opener, their loss last week to Colgate made them the only team in the league to lose this year to a non-Ivy foe.

Brown's problem is simply a lack of capable personnel. It has no quarterback who can create an adequate offense, its offensive line cannot block for what ball carriers there are, and in the face of this defense spends much of the afternoon playing Katie bar the door.

PHS to Try for Third Straight against New Brunswick Saturday

Things are looking up for the Princeton High School football team.

In defeating Madison Township, 14-6, last week, it equalled the number of games it won last season, with four still to go. Coming up are games with New Brunswick here this Saturday at 11 a.m. and Steinert the following week, both of which have won only one game this season in five starts. After that there is a game with Notre Dame which also isn't going anywhere this season, so it is highly possible the Little Tigers will enter their finale against tough Cherry Hill East with a fine 6-1 record. They are currently 3-1-1.

Commenting that he had New Brunswick well scouted, PHS coach Dick Wood added, "The ability is way down in there, I just don't know if it will come out."

New Brunswick, a 17-0 shut out victim of Madison's two weeks ago, lost 34-12 last week to Trenton, the only team to defeat PHS and currently on top in Mercer County with a 4-0 mark. Last year, the Zebras and Little Tigers went through a see-saw battle in New Brunswick before PHS finally walked off the field with an exciting

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BOUNCING BALL: Hit hard by Madison's Tom Gunther (70) PHS fullback Lawrence Parker watches loose ball bounce toward sidelines. It went out of bounds before Richard Asterino (25) of Madison could pounce on it. The forward fumble came within a few inches of giving PHS a first down with 2:06 to play in the third quarter. PHS had to punt on the next play but held on to win, 14-6. (Staff Photo)

29-28 win. PHS is healthy and tailback Landjohn Rossi is throwing the ball with increasing confidence. Barring any sudden ill-fortune, the Blue and White should make New Brunswick its third straight victim.

Spartans Stopped. Against visiting Madison Township, PHS was never out of danger of a possible tie until the final moments of play, when Rossi intercepted his second pass of the day. Said Wood after the 14-6 win, "We had it when we needed it."

PHS led throughout, scoring first in the second quarter on a one yard slant by Rossi and again in the third on a 17 yard pass from Rossi to Lawrence Parker, which consisted primarily of a fine run by the PHS fullback. Sophomore Ned Fry booted both extra points.

Just 12 seconds before the end of the half, PHS had a TD taken away because of a penalty. It was a beautifully executed pass from Rossi who had run to his right and then arched a long bomb diagonally across the field to his end. Daryl Boone, Boone took the ball between two defenders and went in. The plan covered 60 yards but an inelligible receiver down field nullified it. PHS opened the game before a small home crowd by taking the opening kickoff and driving 66 yards to the Madison four, picking up five first downs along the way. However, a backfield in motion penalty and two incompletions stopped the march and Fry's attempted field goal from the 15 fell short.

A Work of Art. Then after holding the Spartans, PHS started again from its 14 and marched downfield 86 yards to score. The drive was a beautifully crafted piece of work and it bore the signature of L. Rossi.

Mixing his plays well and with confidence, Rossi hit Boone for one first down and later flicked a jump pass to his other end, Chris Latham, who ran down the sidelines for 38 yards. Parker ran for a first down to the 15 and in two more plays, Rossi had advanced the ball to the four and another first down. After wingback Rich Jackson was stopped for no gain, Rossi carried it over on his second try.

Madison's attack centered around the running of its fine fullback, Bill Bradley, and the passing of quarterback Eric Cole to end Rick Eckstein. PHS received a break in the second period when Cole passed to his fullback, Dan Cutler, who fumbled as he was hit crossing the goal line. Jackson recovered for PHS on the three.

PHS couldn't move out of the hole, however, and Jackson's short punt was downed by Madison on the PHS 30. Cole's first pass was knocked down by PHS quarterback John Hodges, but his second was a TD strike to Eckstein cutting down the middle.

On the attempted point after, Cole took the snap and instead of placing the ball down flipped it back to the intended kicker, Ed Gray. Gray's attempted pass was batted down by Hyett Briscoe. The flim-flam had failed and PHS owned a 7-6 lead.

The third period was scoreless. Princeton's defense in the first featured Rossi at safety, Dave Sanford and Jackson in the secondary and Hodges and Parker as linebackers. On the line were Dave O'Brien, John Drummond, Isaac Menashe.

Rossi, who would be that much better if he played only offense or defense, started PHS off on its second score by intercepting Cole and returning the ball to the Madison 47, early in the final period. It was Cole's first interception.

A Rossi-to-Jackson pass on third down gave PHS a first down on the 35. A pass interference call against Madison's Tom Gunther gave PHS another first on the 17. On the next play, Rossi flipped a little pass to Parker who carried it in. Six plays, 47 yards.

The visitors weren't finished yet. Cole-to-Eckstein aerials gave the Spartans a first on the PHS 31 with 2:08 to go. On a third and five, Cole, pressed by the PHS rush, passed into a crowd of three consisting of Rossi and two Madison receivers. Rossi was banged hard on either side but managed to hang onto the ball as he crashed to the ground at the three-yard line.

After the game, PHS athletic director and former PHS football coach Joe Jingoli, who had been shouting encouragement from the end zone at the time of Rossi's interception, commented, "That Rossi . . . he sure is a tough kid."

PDS Wins No. 4, Coming from Behind, Naturally

The Princeton Day football team has not only found out how to win football games, rolling to its fourth victory in a row last Saturday over Ward law, but it has developed a special formula built mostly around second half rallies and come-from-behind tactics.

Mitchell Prep will provide the next opportunity for the Panthers to demonstrate their own brand of successful football when it visits the Blue and White at 2 p.m. Saturday.

The non-league foe is 3-1 on the season, with one of its victories coming over Wardlaw 20-9. A smaller team than PDS, something the Panthers rarely come up against, Mitchell has two fine backs, one of whom can run the 100 in 9.7. If he gets out in the open often enough, the Panthers could be in trouble.

Mitchell Prep will probably score a couple, but if the PDS offense continues where it left off against Wardlaw, it should be able to score more often.

The offensive figures against Wardlaw are indeed impressive, even if the final score only showed a four-point edge, 26-22. Some 237 yards rushing were combined with 129 yards passing to give PDS 366 yards of total offense, the most in its short history. Terry Booth, David Claghorn and Peter McCandless provided most of the ground game, while McCandless was 13 for 22 through the air, his best performance to date.

Controlling the ball through most of the game, the Panthers, nevertheless, still had to scramble to finally control the outcome and twice had to come from behind.

OPENING A BIG HOLE FOR CLAGHORN: Princeton Day football coach Dan Barrea credited his offense with "coming into its own" after the Panthers' 26-22 win over Wardlaw Saturday. The blocking here, opening up a hole for David Claghorn to charge through, allowed the Blue and White to rush for 237 yards on the ground.

PDS found itself behind early when McCandless was hit just as he passed, and the ball was intercepted by a Wardlaw player and returned 75 yards for a touchdown. A two-point conversion gave the visitors an 8-0 lead.

An 85-yard march in the second quarter highlighted by a McCandless to Claghorn pass covering 55 yards and Booth's three yard run into the end zone, put PDS on the score-board, but it's try for two points failed and Wardlaw led 8-6 at the intermission.

The Panthers got a big break in the third period when Wardlaw chose to go for a first down on a fourth and three situation from its 45-yard line. They held and immediately drove down to score on a four yard plunge by Terry Booth.

Later after Wardlaw had been forced to punt, McCandless went 50 yards on a keeper play, aided by superb blocking, and PDS appeared to have the game locked up at 19-8, after Booth's conversion.

Wardlaw, however, was not through. A 43-yard pass play brought them to within five at 19-13. Then, when the Panther had a bad snap from center in

Sports In Princeton

With time running out PDS drove down field, and McCandless went over from the 1 with 61 seconds to play for the winning score.

Roward Vine played an outstanding defensive game, getting in on 18 tackles. End Paul Funk got the weekly "Bad Cat" award for his excellent blocking on offense against a big Wardlaw tackle.

With three games remaining, PDS needs only one victory to register its best season in its four-year history of varsity football.

PERKIOMEN HERE FRIDAY

For 3:15 Game With Hun. In five games this season, the Hun football team, which has no apparent weaknesses and many obvious strengths, has racked up 176 points while limiting the opposition to 14. The five were simply "no contest" for the Hun machine which has now stretched its unbeaten string to 30.

"But we still have the toughest part to go," commented Coach Dave Leete prior to Hun's meeting here Friday afternoon with Perkiomen. Kick off is 3:15.

Perkiomen and next week's opponent, Pingry, figured before the season began to give Hun the most trouble. In addition, Princeton Day School, Hun's final opponent, has won its last four and is coming on, prompting Leete to make his remark.

"Perkiomen is always good," Leete said. "There's never been more than six or seven points between us in the last four or five years. He pointed out that Perkiomen held Hun last year to a 6-0 margin until the waning minutes, when Hun scored again for a 13-0 victory. Perkiomen is 2-3 this season.

Bryn Athyn Rout. As expected, winless Academy of New Church (Bryn Athyn) was no match for Hun, losing 43-0.

Hun, which usually sticks to the ground, this time took to the air. Quarterback Alan Chalfoux threw four touchdown passes, two of them 20 and 45 yards to Jack Petrone. Petrone also had a 70 yard touchdown jump to increase his TD total to 11.

In six carries, Petrone rushed for 97 yards. The speedy Princeton halfback now has gained 806 yards in 71 carries, which means that, on average, Petrone gains a first down every time he carries the ball.

Petrone lost a fourth TD when, after a seven yard carry, he fumbled and Hun tackle Jim Langel fell on the ball in the end zone to get credit for the six points.

Chalfoux, enjoying his best day, also connected on scoring strikes of 33 and 51 yards to Mark Taylor, an end, and halfback Peter Jones. Bob Margo has scored Hun's final touchdown on a half yard run, following a 50 yard pass from reserve quarterback Rick Aronstein to Greg Rafalski.

Greg Cortina, Dirk Whitehead and Eric Meyer led the Hun defense in tackles. Hun captain Rick Ziegler, who has also been the top academic student at Hun for the past three years, blocked a Bryn Athyn punt to take part in the merry making.

HILTON ON TOP

In Junior Football Division. Despite a 0-0 tie with First National Bank last week at Community Park field, Hilton Realty has the lead in the junior division of the Midget Football league with one victory and one tie.

The four remaining teams have only ties or losses: First National is 0-2, J. P. Cleaver 0-1, Sibson Associates 0-1 and Peterson Construction, which tied Sibson, 12-12, last week is 0-1.

This Saturday, the opening game at 9 a.m. puts Hilton against Sibson. Cleaver vs. Peterson in the second game.

On Saturday, Peterson grabbed a 12-0 halftime margin in its game with Sibson on touch down runs of 14 and five yards by Mike Fuschini. In the third period, however, Sibson got half of it back on a 27-yard scoring reverse by Dave Robinson. Then in the final period after Dave Miller had picked off a Peterson pass to put Sibson in scoring position, Chuck Gillette tied the game with a four yard TD run.

Fuschini with 41 yards in eight carries was Peterson's top gainer. He was assisted by Chris Ruchfield, David Wilson and Tony Lemar. Bill Delano with six tackles led the Peterson defense, backed up by Hawley Waterman, Jay Budd, John Butte, Cory East and Luther McKellar.

Robinson, 46 yards, six carries, was Sibson's top rusher. He had offensive help from Charles Phox and Larry Gambin. Mark Danforth and James Lion, each with six tackles, led the defense. Matt Adriance, Keith Wood and Chris Miller helped out.

Can't Beat Chuck. Time ran out for Hilton which had the ball on the two yard line in its match with First National Bank.

Back to back runs of 17 and 14 yards by Kevin Streater had carried Hilton that far before the gun sounded. A pass interception by Howie Brooks and fumble recoveries by the Bank's Tommy Ferguson and Bob Campbell also kept Hilton untracked.

Brooks was the Bank's top rusher with 20 yards. Others on offense were Robert McAvonia, Ken Roughgarden, Pat Irby. Brooks also completed two passes to Jack Budd for 38 yards. Randy Glas and Peter Washen contributed to the alert Bank defense.

Streater, who ran for 165 yards in Hilton's opening win, was "held" to 36 this time. Jimmy Heffernan, Robert Wilks and Tod Miller combined for 48 more.

Leading the defense for Milton were Jack Rosenthal, Gary Coluccia, Jimmy McCarthy, Jeff Nunes, Louis Davis, Chris Wells and Jack Gaylord. Ed die Gibson returned his second pass theft of the season 28 yards.

U STORE THE LEADER

At Halfway Mark. Halfway into a six game schedule, University Store has the lead in the senior division of the Midget Football League with a 2-1 mark. It defeated Princeton Fuel Oil in its last start.

The Rug Mart and Nassau Conover Motors, which battled to a scoreless tie in last week's match, are both tied at 1-1 records, while Princeton Fuel Oil is 1-2. This Sunday, University Store will meet the Rug and Furniture Mart in the first game and Fuel Oil plays Nassau Conover.

U Store combined three big scoring plays to defeat Princeton Fuel Oil, 18-12. Lenwood Thomas scored from 44 yards out off one of his patented reverses. Bobby Mclough romped 75 yards for the second TD and Todd McKinley passed 45 yards to Steve Shafer for the third.

A nine yard pass from Peter Barnett to Eric Ziolkowsky put Fuel Oil on the board for the first time, and a 45 yard return of a pass theft by David Lion added six more points.

There were many defensive standouts on both teams. For U Store: David Lacy, Dave Walker, Keith Wadsworth, Jack Stewart, Felix Brown, Robert Plumb, Mclough and McKinley. For the losers: John Perone, Peter Greiff, Edward Frick, Robert Hmrichs, Tom Boyd, David Danforth, Barnett, Lion and Ziolkowsky.

An afternoon drizzle had players on both the Rug Mart and Nassau Conover teams shipping instead of scoring. For the Rug Mart, Robert Wood, Robert McPherson, Dave Baumer, Richard Wilson and Paul Soderman combined for 135 yards, with Wood accounting for the biggest chunk by far — 101 yards.

Drawing plaudits for their defensive play were Nathan Harris, Bill Crane, Warren Davis, Steve O'Neil and Dave Stewart.

Pete Soderman, Ken Bullock and Steve Tomlinson did most of the ball carrying for Nassau Conover. In addition, Soderman connected on a pair of passes to Dan Clobossey and one to Steve Hayden.

Cited for defensive play were Ridgeley Cook, Curt Helm, Austin Erlich, Thomas Moore, Jeff Petrone, Tomlinson, Hayden and Clobossey.

CRANBURY BANK GAINS

In Women's Bowling League. Trailing by 10 last week, Cranbury Bank has cut the lead of Swift's Colonial Diner No. 2 in the Princeton Women's Bowling League to 40-36. Used Car Mart, tied with Cranbury last week, slipped to third place with 32 points.

Aided by Mary Hurlburt's 172-172 and Lillian Coleman's 170, Hamilton Supply Company fashioned the high team series of 1,959. Spinners claimed the high team game of 690. Sue Goodwin of Spinners rolled a 188.

The high single game was a 198 by Pat Brown of Swift's Diner No. 1. Carole Rainey of Swift's Colonial Diner No. 2 had 178. Marilyn Silvester of Used Car Mart rolled 172-170.

TENNIS MEETING SET

To Plan 1971 Season. The Junior Tennis Committee is planning an organizational meeting for the 1971 season at 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 11, at the YWCA Lounge.

Plans will be discussed at this meeting for a winter indoor tennis program as well as the 1971 outdoor program. Staff members of the community tennis program as well as representatives of the Recreation Board, YWCA and the YMCA are being asked to attend, so that last year's program can be reviewed and plans for 1971 coordinated.

Anyone who would like to serve on the 1971 Junior Tennis Committee is welcome to call Mrs. Akira Asano, 921-2182 for further information. Volunteers are needed to assist with round robins, fundraising, indoor winter tennis classes, the scholarship program, local and sanctioned tournaments, as well as the tournament circuit for advanced players.

JOE BOLSTER THIRD

In Cross Country Meet. In the Central Jersey Group 4 Southern Division cross country meet held Friday over a 2.5 mile course in Trenton's Cadwallader Park, Joe Bolster of Princeton High School finished third. About 45 runners participated in the event.

"Joe ran very well," said his coach Larry Ivan. Bolster is a senior and leading miler on the PHS track team.

Roland Smith, a PHS junior, was named the number one junior varsity cross country runner in the same meet.

CARNEGIE CLUB SAILS

Regatta Held Sunday. Commodore Ed Metcalf with his wife, Nancy, as crew, won first place in the Penguin class regatta staged Sunday by the Carnegie Sailing Club. John Hopfield and daughter, Jessica, were second, while Mike Jasser, his wife and small daughter were third.

Walt Gibson took four first places to win easily among the Sunfish, with Jack Kunz second and Dan Mazzarella third. Results in the limited regatta staged for the sloops were unavailable.

RACE TIGHTENS UP

In Flag Football Division. The National Division leader, The Monarchs, were beaten 22-8 by the Ewing Giants Sunday in Mercer County Flag Football action, thereby tightening up the race in that division as Dolci's and the Harrison Athletic Club, in second and third place respectively, both won. HAC plays the Monarchs this Sunday at 11 at Community Park Field.

George Packard and Greg Spady combined for three touchdowns as HAC whipped Center Sports, 32-6. Packard fired another scoring toss to Mike McCullough, and made good on four conversions.

Mall Tavern defeated Ivy Inn, 22-12, to remain unbeaten in its division. Bruce Sandvick flipped two touchdowns passes, one to Alan Wood, the other to Dick Olson, for Ivy's scores.

In other games, Dolci's knocked off Perilli's, 26-8, and Joe and Lena's bombed Mercury-Go Round Bar, 30-8.

WOMEN'S TOURNEY WON

By Jeanne Shrophire. Jeanne Shrophire captured the annual West Windsor Recreation Department women's tennis tournament with a hard fought 6-3, 8-6 win over Jean Polarolo. Mrs. Shrophire had previously defeated Marg Frith, 6-2, 6-3, and Sue Shea, 6-4, 6-3.

Mrs. Frith had overcome Fran Novelli, 6-3, 6-3.

Mrs. Polarolo had advanced to the finals with a 6-2, 6-3 win over Ruth Flock and a 6-4, 6-3 win over Yvonne Macdonald. Mrs. Flock won from Barbara Martindale, 6-2, 6-3 to reach the semi-finals.

Offered in entirety of 130 acres for $225,000 or the house and 40 acres for $150,000.

Just a few miles north of Princeton also in an area of lovely estates is a gem of a lovely old house on five scenic acres with many old trees. The house has the rare combination for lovers of antiques (spacious rooms, fireplaces, mellowed floors) and the beauty of easy modern upkeep (new kitchen, bathrooms and heating system). Screened porch off dining room, separate maids quarters, finished basement, pool and garages. A very special offering for lovers of the country life.

Want a real challenge? A real "oldie" which needs real help. Beautiful old trees on the grounds and a good huge barn. 14 acres available in entirety or may be purchased with only three acres. Any handymen around?

Asking $60,000 with 3 acres.

Not a real oldie, but an attractive one and a half story on three and a half acres. A wooded area with four bedrooms, 2 baths and screened porch. $55,000

Another country place just outside Lawrenceville. This one on eight acres and brook and woods. A good two story house, not real large but lots of possibilities. The land alone is worth the asking price of $42,000

WOOD YOU BELIEVE!

Maybe we didn't spell it right, but we sure made it right. And right smack where it belongs—in the woods. This fantastic contemporary simply defies description. Strictly one of a kind, and incomparable from the word go. Zigzag roof lines, exposed beamed ceilings, thermopane glass walls—the works. And functional as can be, with a large living room, and marble fireplace faced with brick travertine, dining room, very special and spacious kitchen, 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, 2 1/2 game room, basement, 2 car garage. With all sorts of special features, such as cork floors, built-in bar, self cleaning oven, outside redwood deck—to mention only a few. In a picture-like setting in Princeton's Riverside, overlooking Lake Carnegie. $99,000

Surround yourself with trees, grass and history.

There's plenty of all three on what may be the highest spot between New York and Philadelphia. Certainly it's one of the most historic, if not the most beautiful. Just 15 homes will be custom built from your plans or ours abutting Greenacres Country Club Golf Course. Each will share in a sweep of common land... and in views and privacy all but vanished these days. In't all this worth $50,000 or more?
